COMPILER'S PREFACE :

The compiler having a desire to perpetuate the memory of the dear old people, thought a collection of the Old Documents and Family Records would best bring about such a result.

A History has not been written for them ; but such as they made for themselves has been brought into this work.

There is little to be claimed as being original. The compiler has endeavored to present the domestic customs and habits in a simple manner, in keeping with their lives and circumstances. They appeared to be inconsistent in many things according to our ideas, but they lived up to the light they possessed, and we must judge them from that standpoint.

They were a home loving people and lived very much to themselves or within the circle of the Dutch Settlement. They visited frequently their fellow church members and were very much devoted to their children and kept them under the family roof ; building additions to their houses when they married. The old saying : " You could tell how many children were married by the number of extensions to the homestead " was a true one. They were good and loyal citizens and loved their God and their country.

DOCUMENTARY PREFACE.

Found in the Bible of Joseph Hegeman of Cedar Swamp.

The following are the desired rules of this family:

As for me and my house, we will serve the Lord. Josh. 24. 15.

We have no time given us to throw away, but to improve for Eternity.

Therefore, we would join in no conversation that is unprofitable; but in that which is good to the use of edifying ministering grace to the hearers.

Therefore, we are not anxious for the news of the town, or to be informed of the business of others; but we desire to hear of the things pertaining to the Kingdom of God, whether in the government of His providence, or the reign of His grace. Neither have we anything to say of the misconduct of others.

Therefore, let not the fault of any absent be mentioned, unless absolute necessity requires it; and then let it be with the greatest tenderness, without dwelling upon it, considering ourselves in the flesh and liable to err, let us attend to the apostolic caution: "Let him which thinketh he standeth take heed lest he fall." May God preserve us from a censorious spirit contrary to and unlike the mind which is in Christ Jesus.

We offer the right hand of Fellowship to everyone that cometh in the name of the Lord; but we receive none to doubtful disputation; but whosoever loveth the Lord Jesus in sincerity, the same is our brother, sister and mother, for we cannot but remember God is Love.

We never intend to enter into religious disputes with anyone upon the principles of mastery or vain glory; but where there is a prospect of edification we hope by Grace to contend for the faith once delivered to the Saints, avoiding at the same time uncharitable censures, and in the spirit, leaving others to stand or fall to their own masters.

We neither receive nor pay visits on the Lord's Day, for we and our house desire particularly on that day to serve the Lord; but as it is our duty to do good unto all men, to be hospitable and careful to entertain strangers, we hope to discharge this duty equally alike on all days as Divine Providence calls us to it.

We do earnestly desire everyone to reprove us faithfully when we deviate from any of these rules, promising at the same time to receive with gladness what is offered in love, knowing that he who hateth reproof is brutish. So shall we prove as guardian angels to each other, and manifest the natural result of Redeeming Love on souls acceptable to God through the Beloved. "And as many as walk according to these rules, peace be unto them." Gal. 6, 16.

A Documentary History,

OF THE

DUTCH CONGREGATION

Of Oyster Bay, Queens County,

ISLAND OF NASSAU.

(Now Long Island.)

AT an early period of the Reformation the Protestants on the Continent were divided into two bodies, the Lutheran and the Reformed.

The latter became dominant in the Netherlands, where they maintained their religious liberties only after a long, costly and bloody struggle against the gigantic power of Philip II. during which they suffered all that men could suffer. No mode in which human beings have ever caused their fellow creatures to suffer was omitted from daily practice. Men, women and children, old and young, nobles and paupers, opulent burghers, hospital patients, lunatics, dead bodies, all were indiscriminately made to furnish food for the scaffold and the stake. Men were tortured, beheaded, hanged by the neck and by the legs, burned before slow fires, pinched to death with red hot tongs, broken upon the wheel, starved and flayed alive. Their skins, stripped from the living body, were stretched upon drums to be beaten in the march of their brethren to the gallows. The additional barbarities committed during the sack and ruin of those blazing and starving cities are almost beyond belief . . . and whole populations were burned and hacked to pieces by soldiers in every mode which cruelty in its wanton ingenuity could devise. Such was the administration of which Vargas (a noble Spaniard in high authority) affirmed that too much mercy had been its ruin. So calamitous was their condition during the eighty years war that they gave themselves the name of the Church under the Cross and their symbol was

“A Lily amidst Thorns.”

In 1566 while war was raging, the deputies of the churches met in Antwerp and framed the Belgic Confession, which continues to this day, to be the doctrinal standard of the Reformed in Holland.

A national synod was convened at Dort in 1618 which revised the Confession and Catechism and the Rules of Church Government.

In 1609 Hendrick Hudson in the ship Half Moon arrived in the New Netherlands and landed on the “Island of Manhattan.”

The lower part of it consisted of wood crowned hills and beautiful grassy valleys, including a chain of swamps and marshes and a deep pond. The sole inhabitants were a tribe of dusky Indians, dwelling in the cluster of rude wigwams that dotted here and there the surface of the country.

The rivers that girded the Island were yet unstirred by the keels of the ships of the white men, and the canoes of the Indian only, navigated their peaceful waters. A little settlement was made and in 1623 there arrived from Amsterdam thirty families and the town began to grow.

Thus was introduced in this land the seeds of the Reformation. They brought with them their Bible and Catechism.

In 1626 some thirty rudely constructed log houses had been erected along the shore of the rivers and these with a block house, a horse mill and the West India Company's thatched stone building made up the beginning of the great city of New York.

There came over with these early pioneers two persons called “Krank bezoekers or Zieken troasters” (consolers of the sick) Sebastian Jansen Krol and Jan Huyck, who, in the absence of a minister, gathered the people together and read to them selected passages of the Scripture, suitably arranged for instruction and comfort.

They held their religious meetings from 1623 in a spacious room in a loft over the horse mill, and continued to do so even after a church was organized in July 1628.

The first settlement on Long Island seems to have been made about 1625. From a family record it appears that the first child of George Jansen De Rapelje was born at the Waale Boght that year. In that year the West India Company sent over here 103 head of cattle. Fearing the cattle might be lost in the surrounding forests the settlers landed them on Nutleir's (Governor's) Island.

On June 4, 1638, Governor Van Twiller let George Rapelje have two cows for four years, then to be returned with half their increase, with the exception of a heifer, which the Governor consented to give to his (Rapelje's) daughter Judith.

This seems to have been a common mode of furnishing the settlers with stock.

Cal Mss.,

To-day, date underwritten, appeared before me Cornelis Diercksen, who acknowledged to have received from the Honble Wouter van Twiller, late Director of New Netherland, 22 old cabrieten (sup. Pigs) 8 young ones, 13 old goats, seven young ones and one he goat, all of which animals the affiant promises properly to take care of and to look after them, as if they were his own; for this trouble he shall have the milk from the goats and have the use of them until further ordered by said Van Twiller. For this, Cornelis Diercksen pledges his person and property, movable and immovable, nothing excepted, submitting to all laws in good faith. Thus done on the Island of Manhates this 24th of July 1638, (provided that his son shall have the first two cabriente born, for his own.)

By me Cornelis Diercksen Hoochlandt.

The families of the Dutch congregation were mostly settled in Kings county, and those who emigrated the second time, or their children and grandchildren.

We find that the Braambosh family were at the Wallabout in 1726. The Bogarts at Walabocht in 1687.

Duryeas at Bushwick in 1681.

Simonsons at Brooklyn in 1687.
Van Cotts at Bushwick in 1687.
Van Nostrands at Flatbush in 1693.
Van Wickelens at Flatbush in 1686.

Sir Edmund Andros writes in 1678:

“Ministers have been soe scarce and Religions many that noe acct can be given of children's births or christenings. Scarcity of Ministers and Law admitting marriages by Justices, noe acct can be given of the number married. Noe acct can be given of burials, formes of burials not being generally observed and few ministers till very lately”.

(By the Compiler.)

If the Hon. Andros had been better acquainted with the peculiar habits of his Dutch subjects, and had made an inspection of their Psalm Books and Bibles, he would have found considerable to give an account of, as the Dutch kept the records of Births, Marriages and Deaths.

The following from "Bergen's Records" might have furnished the Governor with a starting point :

Jannetye,

The question has often been asked, why did this people leave the western towns where they seemed to be very satisfactorily located and move out into what was thus early a comparative wilderness. So far the question has remained unanswered.

Governor Dongan in his report in 1687 says : "I believe for these seven year last past, there has not come over into this province twenty English, Scotch or Irish familys. But on the contrary on Long Island the people encrease soe fast that they complain for want of land and many remove from thence into the neighboring province, it being the best peopled place in this Gover'm't."

1702, October 20. On account of the sickness in New York, by which 500 died in ten weeks, the Assembly adjourned to Jamaica till November 14th. (It was the yellow fever brought from St. Thomas.)

Governor Cosby on December 6, 1734, writes: "The main bent of our farmers is to raise wheat, and they are like to remain in that way until the price of it becomes so low that necessity puts upon some other way of cultivation.

In this Collony are a great many lands extream fit for hemp, and there is not one farm in it but has land proper to raise flax; but little more of either is raised than what is for private use."

These are some of the causes that appear to influence a removal.

The old story about the Dutch being sent or located to protect some boundary line does not seem to be established by the facts. Edmund Wright and Josias Latting were among the original purchasers from the Indians in Wolver Hollow and they were not Dutch. The Dutch were located on a line diagonally and nearly across the Town of Oyster Bay. Jericho on the south and Oyster Bay and Musqueto Cove on the north, and these places were not settled by Dutch unless they were like the lost tribes of Israel—vanished.

Adrian Hegeman was probably one of the first settlers and he located on what is now called Dana's Island, and Peter Monfoort was another who settled near Wolver Hollow. Even "Norridge" was more English than Dutch. The Bennett family were English but through many marriages into Dutch households were classed among the Dutch congregation. They were largely residents of the locality between Norridge and Poverty Hollow.

Who were the Dutch who were sent out to prevent the English from "jumping their claim?" So far there has been no names of Dutch people found who could be considered as such.

From a careful study of the life and habits of the Dutch congregation they are found to be a domestic people. They loved the quiet and peace of their own firesides. They were slow to act, but sure. They were perhaps too much crowded in the places they left. They wanted to avoid all the disturbing influences surrounding them in their early homes. As old Anthonie Van Noostrant said in one of his letters: "Daer Schint Engroot Roumoer" had a disturbing influence and they sought to avoid it. They wanted to smoke their pipes in peace and quietness.

(Translation.)

In the year of our Lord Jesus Christ, 1732, the 9th of September, the Protestant Dutch Congregation of Oyster Bay in Queens County, and the Island of Nassau in accordance with a previous agreement met at the residence of Jurian Haff to arrange for the building of a church or God's house within the limits of the said village, and for the use of the said congregation according to the foregoing agreement. Adrian Hegeman, Jurian Haff, Jacob Van Noorstrant and Barent Van Wyck were chosen for overseers and builders of the said church. It was concluded that the seats in the said church when finished shall cost and stand to wit: the men's places at twenty-five shillings and the women's places at twenty shillings, and that when any of the owners of the said seats shall remove out of the County, then the seat shall be carried over by the church Masters and within six months to any person of the congregation in the said County.

And that those of the subscribers in the before written who shall in the least in default fall, shall fully of such seats their rights forfeit, and the same shall fall to the said church for the benefit and use of themselves. Further is concluded by the beforenamed congregation, that two persons shall be chosen for Church Masters for one year, and that at the end of each year one new one shall be chosen, and one of the before named going off. Further is concluded and appointed that after that the seats in the said church of even alike price shall stand, also for the choice of the same tickets shall be drawn. Further, the before named overseers of buildings are authorized to provide the necessary money to pay for and power is given them to take possession of the beforenamed church when it shall be finished. Further, so have the persons whose names hereon this paper stand promised well and truly to pay such sums of money as opposite their names had been signed, to the before named overseers or upon their order whenever it is demanded, for the aforesaid use to spend and not otherwise. In witness whereof and fully confirming the before subscribed did they thereon their names fix or did set, with their particular promised sum of money.

Therefore and now is it further to be understood that any repairs wanted on the said church, the cost shall be shared equally one each for his seat, and if any person unwilling is about paying, he shall his place loose and it shall fall to the said church.

THIS INDENTURE made this twenty-fifth day of September, in the year of our Lord Christ seventeen hundred and thirty-two, Between Edmond Wright of Oyster Bay in Queens County and Long Island in the province of New York, Yoeman, of the first parte and Orderyon Hagerman and Henry Haff and Jacob Vanostrant & Barent Vanwick all parties chosen by the Dutch Congregation of Oyster Bay to buy a pease of Land to build a Meeting house, for the publick Worship of God and for the public use of the said Dutch Congregation of the other parte, witnesith that the said Edmond Wright for and in consideration of the Sum of six pounds New York Money to him in hand at or before the Enseallin and Delivery of these presents By the said Trustees and for the use of said congregation the Receipt thereof he Doth acknowledge and him Selfe therewith fully Satisfied and contented and paid and thereof and therefrom and from every parte and people thereof Doth for Ever acquit, exonerate and discharge and do by these presents freely fully and absolutely give grant Bargain Sell alienate Enfee of assure and confirm unto the said Ordereyon Hageman and Henry Haff and Jacob Vanostrant and Barent Vanwick the aforesaid Trustees and for the use of said Dutch Congregation theirs Heirs Exctr. admr. and assigns for Ever. 1734.—April 25. The members of the Dutch Reformed Church in Oysterbay were gathered in our New Church, for "Church Masters" to choose to regulate the sittings according to the before written articles also to require the builders and overseers, reckoning to do. Peter Luyster and Cornelis Hoogland were chosen for "Church Masters" and Simon Loyse and Cornelis Hoogland were chosen to receive the report of the builders and overseers.

1734.—de 15 Maey—hebben de bouwers of opsienders Van Het bouwen van onse Kerck rekening gedaen van het getekende gelt.

Translation :

1734.—May 15. The builders and overseers of our Church have given an account of the money received.

The "Kerk Meester" or Deacons found a book was requisite for the Records of the Church and the first one used is before the writer. It is made of very heavy paper and bound with sheep skin.

On the first page is written the following :

"Dit is het Kercke meesters boeck Voor de nederduytse gereformeerde Kerck Van Oysterbay in queens county op het Jlaut Van nassow in de Colony Van New York den 15 Maey anno 1734."

The first Church must have presented a strange appearance. There is some difference of opinion as to its shape, the probability is that it was square. The sides as well as the roof were shingled. The exposed ends of the shingles were rounded. The building was not painted either within or without.

The posts for the frame were about fifteen feet high and the four-sided and pointed roof was very steep.

High up on the sides were small windows, the upper part of small panes of glass and the lower part of shutters.

These latter were closed in winter, but opened in summer for ventilation. On the south side were a pair of double doors rounded at the top, and made of boards placed diagonally. From the arrangement of the seats the building must have been thirty feet square.

During the early period there was only an earth floor, but a board floor seems to have been added later, probably in 1789.

Around the sides extending upwards more than four feet was a board wainscoting and above that probably plastering while overhead was a ceiling of boards.

The pulpit was small and raised high above the head of the people and was at the north side of the room. On that side were also a number of pegs on which the minister and perhaps the elders and deacons hung hats and overcoats. In front of or under the pulpit at his desk sat the "voorlezer" or clerk. The arrangement of the seats is thus described by the clerk who kept the "kerk meesters" book :

"Nomber een begint agter de onderling banck, en soo Voort tot nomber Vier, en nomber Vyef begint agter de dejakens banck en Soo Voort, Ver Volgens"

"hier begennen de Vrous plaetse aen de West Syde Van de gangh."

Gathering from this record there must have been five seats in the northeast corner, the first one being the elders' bench with four seats behind it.

Then the other benches were with the ends against the east side of the Church the first one being the deacons' bench with number five behind it and so back to the door, the last one being number ten. On the west side of the aisle were the women's chairs, there being ten rows of chairs with eight in a row. In the northwest corner was the Justices' bench, probably facing the women. The men's benches only accommodated six. The Justices' bench seated seven. The seating capacity of the Church was therefore one hundred and sixty.

Extract from a letter of John Armstrong Bennet, of Nyack, N. Y.

"Before me is a New Testament with Hymns (Psalm Book) and Psalms published in 1758, well bound and closed with silver clasps and rings, which my grandmother carried to Brookville (Wolver Hollow) Church. I remember the Old Church. It was square like a "hay rick," the ceiling was concave and of unpainted boards, containing the numbers in chalk marks and which I loved to count.

The pulpit was the exact shape of a Wine Glass, with sounding board suspended over it. I was present when it was taken down."

The Sit places were overcarried (to use the Dutch phrase) by a regular transfer on the part of the Kerck Meesters, and the subsequent owners of seats (whose names are as follows) is as correct a list as it is possible to arrive at :

In the year 1749 and 50 have we Jacob Vanderbelt and Laurens

Haff paid out in money £3. 9. 3. for the cost of a "Pall" for the use of our Dutch congregation here to Oysterbay whenever it shall be required.

With consent of the congregation on the one part and of Simon Locey and Peter Liester on the other part, who thereto chosen were by the congregation, they have with us agreed that the use of the Pall shall belong solely to those who hold to the congregation of our Dutch church here to Oysterbay, or reside within the territory of this congregation; whether they be of the members or not, and in such manner as above because of the increase, should there be two dead that the "dead cloth" should require at the same time, the first dead shall the preference to the "cloth" have; and those who belong to the congregation of the church of hemstie, (Success.) Shemeica (Jamaica,) or to Newtown no right to the "cloth" shall have; because the use is to those who must reside within the territory of this congregation here to Oesterbay.

The date following the name is the time when he made his report, the amount following shows the balance in their hands of Banden & Gelt as they expressed it.

Anthonie Van Noorstrant, elected Aug. 5, 1775 just before the outbreak of the Revolutionary War, made a report on May 27, 1777, of a balance on hand of £29,9,7.

The old man must have been very much disturbed in mind over the safe keeping of the church money during the war, as a company of Hessian soldiers were camped within a short distance of his home in Wolver Hollow.

Sept. 2, 1786. He turned over to his successors the same amount.

The balance on hand was designated as so much in Banden and Gelt and Kopers. The "Banden" was a portion of the money loaned out on a personal bond, a copy of such bond here follows:

In 1790, '91, '92 they reported as a part of the Funds 18 shillings in "Kopers."

KNOW ALL MEN BY THESE PRESENTS, that I, Adrian Hegeman, minor, yeoman of Oyster Bay, in Queens County, on Nassau Island and in the Province of New York, Yeoman, am held and firmly bound unto the Deacons of the Dutch Congregation of Oyster Bay in Queens County aforesaid, in the penal sum of fourty pounds, current lawful money of New York to be paid to the said Deacons or to their successors, attorney, Executors, administrators or assigns to the which payment well and truly to be made I do hereby bind myself, my heirs, executors or administrators and everyone of them firmly by these presents, sealed with my seal and dated this first day of May and in the year of our Lord Anno Domini 1769.

The condition of this above was the payment of Twenty pounds and that at five per cent. Two receipts on the back were endorsed for the payment of interest for 1770, 1771.

Aug. 5, 1769, Gerret Wortman reported the balance as £25,13,2 and this Bond was a portion of that balance.

It is to be noticed that it was given by Adrian Hegeman Minor.

There were three Adraens: Senior, Junior and Minor, although the Senior was dead the title was retained.

In 1749 Lourens Hoff (Haff) was elected Kerk Meester or Deacon, but when the time came for him to report, he failed to do so, and held on to the money.

In order that the Minutes of the Deacons of July 25, 1755 may be understood regarding the discord therein mentioned, their Minutes showing the cause of the trouble is here transcribed.

In't Jaer 1750 heeft Jacob Vanderbelt Rekening ge daen aen Lourens Haff en Peter Monfoort, en heeft gevonden aen Gelt £2.18.10 aen bonden £25.6.1.

In't Jaer 1751, in Maey, is gekose tot Kerke meester Jan Remse maer heeft geen rekening kunnen Doen om redenen dat Lawerens Haff die heeft het in zyn hande gehoude.

In't Jaer 1752, den 25 April is gekose tot kerke meester Jeromus Bennit en heeft ook geen rekening kunne doen ook om die seldfe redenen.

In't Jaer 1753 den 12 Maey is gekose tot kerke meester Jan Woertman en heeft ook geen rekening kunne doen ook om die Selve redenen.

In't Jaer 1754 den 25 Maey is gekose tot kerke meester Joseph Hegeman.

In the year 1750 has Jacob Vanderbelt an account given to Lourens Haff and Peter Monfoort and has given to, in money £2.18.10 in Bonds £25.6.1

In the year 1751 in May is chosen for Deacon Jan Remse, but he no reckoning can do, for reason that Lawerens Haff has it in his hands held.

In the year 1752 the 25 Apl. is chosen for Deacon, Jeromus Bennit and he also no reckoning can do also for the same reason.

In the year 1753 the 12 May is chosen for Deacon Jan Woertman and he also no reckoning can do also for the same reason.

In the year 1754 the 25 May is chosen for Deacon Joseph Hegeman.

It appears that some of the subscribers to the building fund thought the surplus over the cost of the Church, and the profit arising from the sale of forfeited seats, should be divided, and a discord arose.

In the year 1755 the 25 July have the Deacons these articles brought up on account of their one discord in the year 1753.

In the year 1734 then was the church finished and the money that then over remained, and the profit from year to year made by the Deacons of the church.

Further, in the year 1749 was Lauwerens Hoff chosen for Deacon and he has that portion of the money and now proposes to divide among the persons here under written by name.

(The names omitted.)

So have these above written persons no right nor part to that residue of the money that yet over remained and the balance of that money that Lawrence Haff not named has that shall stay to

In the year of our Lord 1787 we the "Church Masters" Jacob Van Wicklen and Piter Luister have notified the congregation about the places that are still to the church belonging, also about the sale and about the expenses to pay the deacon of the church.

On the first day of September we sold the Justices' Bench (7 places) in the Northwest corner and two in the east bench of No. 10. Two in the west bench of No 13, and five woman's places.

These places have fallen and the proceeds have been paid to the deacon of the church.

1791, September 19. A special meeting of the Consistory of the Congregation to Oyster Bay, met at the house of Aaron Simonson, after prayer the following action was taken. Joris Bennet member of this congregation and at present Deacon, has for some considerable time proof given of his departure from the doctrine of the Reformed Church (which it still believes to be pure and has been founded on God's word). At a meeting of a foregoing consistory a full investigation of his fall from the doctrine of the church was made and the grounds against him were proved.

The Consistory present as well as particular persons, have sufficiently admonished in vain, as he at present persists and perseveres in this sin into which he has fallen, against all remonstrance, so that we (officially obliged are about all offences, heresy and error without the church to remove)

Viz: Joris Bennet be refused from sitting to have in the Deacon's seat, also he be restrained from the use of the Holy Sacrament, until the time that he proof gives of hearty repentance, concerning his fault committed in these things, and departure from the pure doctrine of our church, and these besides with hearty confession of his fault and departure from the doctrine of our church, to us return, and shall receive all the articles of our church with renewed acceptance.

Oh! may God this grant, at the end, that he back again in the bosom of our church may be received.

Of all the records of the Dutch Congregation, the "Doopt Boek" or Baptismal Register is the most important. On the opening page is written in Dutch (which needs no translation).

"Het eerste Doop Boek in Oesterbay Begint

"met de A, 1741, de 6 Ziptember.

Gerrit Snedeker.

"on page 4, Isaac Remsen, in het Jaer, 1743 den 24.

"Jeuny.

"heest Verder Recaert gehouden.

"heest Verder Recaert gehouden."

From 1741 to 1792 there were 643 babies baptised, and the record is in Dutch. In 1792 Ryneer Van Nest V.D.M. as he signs himself began recording the Doop Boek in English, and it was so done thereafter. The whole record contains the names of about 1,100 baptisms. The peculiar part is the Dutch part. The compiler has designated this people as the Dutch Congregation, and to confirm that opinion would say that many of the people came from the neighborhood of Jamaica, where they attended church. The baptismal record of the Jamaica church was recorded in Dutch, when they settled in Oyster Bay they came as Dutch and wrote their records in the language of their fathers.

They were an exclusive people and seldom went outside of the settlement for husbands or wives for their children. They were surrounded by Quakers and in the course of time their prejudice wore away and many were connected with them, but it was disastrous to the seclusion of the Dutch. No doubt the charms of the Quaker maid were just as potent as their own daughters', and where they were located as neighbors it was a very difficult matter to keep them from talking over the fence. Then again families had certain affinities for other families, and they frequently intermarried.

To the many readers of this history the fact is self evident that the same names are maintained in the settlement to the present day, and the church records at the present time are filled with the names of the descendants of the original settlers. Again they had a peculiar way of naming their children. One of the subscribers to the building fund signed his name Steven Janse. His correct name was Steven Janse Van Voorhies, which means that he was the son of Jan Van Voorhies, and like many of the old people, he had dropped the name of Van Voorhies. To make this more clear, a copy from an old Bible record in the possession of James M Onderdonck of Manhasset, is here given:

Peter Monfoort, the son of Peter the emigrant, married Marretje Pieterse Luyster, the daughter of Pieter Luyster the emigrant.

MONFOORT: Pieter Pieterse Monfoot, baptized July 21, 1652, married Marretje Pieterse Luyster and had issue :

1. Antie Piertse, born May 21, 1677
2. Sara " " June 15, 1679
3. Peter " " Feb. 16, 1681
4. Cornelius " " Mch. 9, 1684
5. Elbert " " Jan. 27, 1687
6. Stirte " " Apl. 20, 1689
7. Antie " " Mch. 30, 1691
8. Cornelius " " Apl. 25, 1694
9. Jacobus " " Oct. 6, 1696
10. Jan " " Feb. 7, 1702

The "Pieterse" was added to show that they were the children of Peter Monfoort. The last son Jan (10) when he recorded the birth of his children would enter them as Janse to show they were the children of Jan Monfoort. As we shall not have much of the above to encounter it was given to show one feature of a very peculiar people who were trying to maintain a custom of their fatherland, surrounded by many adverse circumstances. The records of the Dutch church have furnished many families with a starting point in ancestry building, perhaps more than from any other source. The Dutch people were proud of their race, and maintain a share of their exclusiveness even to the present time.

There was a record of the Kerk Meesters written, which the Compiler had overlooked, but it is curious enough to be given alone.

The Dutch Dominies.

IN my rummaging around for old documents, a number of papers were found at "Beth-Horan" (as the family like to call it), written in Dutch. They related to times long past, and embraced a period of over forty years, relating to matters connected with the Church history.

The translation has been made so as to adhere as nearly as possible to the Dutch idiom; as a liberal or free translation would spoil the quaint fashion or style of the writing.

A concise biographical sketch of the characters mentioned, with the concurrent facts of local history of the Low Dutch Reformed church in Queens County are interwoven.

We like to know something about the people of whom we read, and these biographical sketches have been gleaned from many sources, or at least the fragments have been. The writer desires to make this acknowledgment to the different authors, without giving details as to the titles of their works.

As there were four particular preachers whose names appear repeatedly, they are given first, and the others in the order of sequence.

JOHANNES CASPARUS RUBEL.

Born in 1719; was educated in Germany. Emigrated to America, 1751. He preached in different places in Kings County, from 1755 to 1783. Was a zealous Conferentie man; was styled by the German Coetus in 1755, "the rebellious Rubel," and on April 9th of that year it was voted that he be requested to resign, but not doing so, he was deposed in 1784.

He was a violent Tory, calling the American soldiers "Satan's soldiers," and frequently denouncing from the pulpit, in violent language, the cause of independence. He was also accused of drunkenness and bad treatment of his wife.

His tombstone was inscribed in Dutch, and as follows :

"Tot gedachtenis Van Johs Casps Rubel, V. D. M. Geboren den 6 Maert, O. S. 1719. Overleden den 19. Maert, 1797."

ULPIARIUS VAN SINDEREN.

Was born in Holland. Called to preach in Flatbush, April 19, 1747.

He married October 29, 1748, Cornelia, daughter of Capt. John Schenck and Femmetje Hegeman, and had issue, two children, Ulpiarius and Femmetje.

Cornelia died from injuries received by being thrown out of a gig, shortly after the birth of the two children.

He died July 23, 1796, aged 89.

The Femmetje Hegeman mentioned was a sister of Adriaen, who was the first of that family settling in the town of Oyster Bay.

JOHANNES RITZEMA.

In 1742, the churches in New York sent to Holland for a minister, and in response to their message, Dominie Ritzema arrived in New York October 14, 1744, with his wife and three children. A few years after his settlement, 1747, the Coetus was formed, he being a member. From this Coetus sprang all the angry disputes and violence that permeated the Dutch church for many years. Ritzema and his colleague, De Ronde, withdrew from this and formed another association called the Conferentie.

When the Revolution took place he retired to Kinderhook, where he continued to reside until his death, April 7, 1794, aged 86. See Collegiate Church Year Book for 1884 for a more detailed account.

LAMBERTUS DE RONDE.

Was born in Holland in 1720, and educated and ordained to the ministry. In 1746 he was sent to Surinam, in Dutch Guiana, where he labored for several years.

He made a visit to New York, where his preaching was so pleasing that the Collegiate Churches after some examination as to his testimonials, issued a call to him on August 20, 1750, with the understanding that he was to join the Coetus, which he did. When the Revolution broke out, he was compelled to leave the city, when he withdrew to Schaghticoke.

He died September 30, 1795, at that place. Also, his wife, Margaretta Catharina, born in Holland in 1719, died December 11, 1801.

He was a man of considerable culture and of much industry, but was irascible and self-willed. A more extended account of him can be found in the Year Book for 1885 of the New York Collegiate church.

THE FOUR CHURCHES.

Low Dutch Reformed Church at Jamaica.

The early organization of this congregation is undetermined; but it was the first of the congregations of the Dutch people in Queens county. Its first record of baptisms was June 1st, 1702. They had no place of worship as their own until April 29, 1715, when the elders and deacons of the congregations throughout Queens county resolved unanimously to build a church at Jamaica. The sum of £361.18.6 was raised by subscription. May 13, 1715, a lot of twenty-five square rods was bought for 5 shillings of Rev. Benjamin and Abigail Woolsey of Dosoris. They met in the new church for the first time June 15, 1716.

Low Dutch Reformed Church at Success (generally called Hempstead).

Was organized April 11, 1730.

Half an acre of land was bought of Martin Wiltse for 25 shillings. Money was subscribed to the amount of £173.16 for a church building, which was soon erected. The corner stone is dated 1732. In 1813 the northern part of the congregation withdrew and organized a separate society at Manhasset. The old congregation disbanded in 1830.

The Success church was builded near the shore of the lake, at what is now called Lakeville, and a very beautiful and charming place it is. The old building was sold for $290, and taken down after standing one hundred years.

Low Dutch Reformed Church at Newtown.

There seems to have been no regular organization or congregation in Newtown previous to the building of the church, the inhabitants attending at Jamaica or Bushwick.

The year 1731 witnessed the first efforts to effect the building of a house of worship, as appears from the record of a meeting called for that purpose.

"In the year of our Lord Jesus Christ 1731, on the 2d of December convened in the house of Samuel Fish, Jr., and have resolved in peace and love to build a Church or house of God."

A subscription soliciting funds for that purpose was started, and £277.12 was secured. On May 27, 1732, they appointed their brothers and faithful friends, etc., as a building committee.

They bought a plot of ground from Peter Berrien, April 3, 1733, and the church was built and finished in August, 1735.

Low Dutch Reformed Church of Oyster Bay, Located at Wolver Hollow (Now Brookville).

Was organized about 1732, as a meeting was held on Sept. 9, 1732, at the house of Jurien Haff for the purpose of going on with the building of a Church or House of God.

A subscription of £163 was made. Adriaen Hegeman, Jurien Haff, Jacob Van Noorstrant and Barent Van Wyck were appointed a committee for that purpose. The church was completed and the congregation met in the new church April 25, 1734.

The church was built on an acre of ground bought of Edmund Wright Sept. 25, 1732, for £6.

The Collegiate Churches of Queens County.

The Dutch people in Queens County previous to the building of the church in Jamaica, were depending largely for ministers and religious services on Kings county and New York, but after the building of the churches in Queens county the delegates from the four congregations met at Flatbush on July 23, 1739, and united in engaging the services of Domini Van Basten for one year at a salary of £75.

He was succeeded by Domini Goetchius of Pennsylvania. When he was settled, Sept. 4, 1741, the congregations united in buying a parsonage house at Jamaica for £185. Shortly, opposition was excited because of his enthusiasm, and the troubles began.

It would be in explanation to say, that one Domini was required to fill the pulpit on alternate Sabbaths in the four churches.

JOHANNES HENRICUS GOETCHIUS.

Born in 1718, in Liguria, Switzerland. Studied in the University of Zurich. Was called to preach in the Dutch churches of Queens county in October, 1740, and being their first regular preacher. Was licensed and ordained by his preceptor, Dorsius, aided by Johannes Frelinghuysen of Raritan. This was just about the time of the first meeting of the Dutch Coetus. Many souls needed instruction, and these excellent men felt that this must not be withheld on account of ecclesiastical formalities. They lived far in advance of their times.

Domini Goetchius was inducted at Jamaica April 19, 1741, by Domini Freeman, who preached from Matthew 28:20.

Coetus says, Goetchius was qualified; ordained by Dorsius and Frelinghuysen; though they had no right to do so, and that Freeman, with the assent of Antonides, openly laid hands on him and installed him. We quote from Corwin's Manual farther: "But certain persons created difficulties respecting the validity of his ministry, and his colleague, Antonides, now inconsistently took part with them. The pressure brought to bear on him caused him sometimes to lose his temper, for which he was rebuked by Classis. Immorality was also charged against him, but this was declared not sustained."

He seemed to be in advance of the times, and his sermon Aug. 22, 1742, on the "Unknown God" savored of the "higher criticism." It gave great offense to his people, and with that and the question of his ordination, "the church was sometimes locked against him; when he preached in barns or crowded houses, or under trees, or on the door steps of the church."

On one occasion, when in the church, the Voorzanger, who sat below the pulpit and in those days gave out the hymns, in order to prevent his preaching, gave out the whole of the 119th Psalm, which would have taken all day to sing. Mr. G. had the courage to stop it.

He was a man of deep feeling and strong passions, it being said that once, when resistance was apprehended to his entering the church at Hackensack, he buckled on his sword, and thus accoutred entered the pulpit. It must be remembered, that it was not unusual for even a minister to wear a sword.

To the Coetus party was imputed the better piety, and to that Mr. Goetchius belonged.

He was removed from his charge in 1748, and for the sake of peace consented to take the place of a candidate and submit to a new examination and ordination, though having been ten years in the ministry.

He was a learned, pious and godly man, and a faithful and successful preacher of the gospel, and God accepted his work, giving him great revivals in the places where he served.

He was below the medium size, of a vigorous constitution; abrupt in speech, but his language was clear and expressive. He was a man of profound erudition, a thorough Calvinist, and an accomplished theologian and able preacher.

He died in 1774, aged 57.

He was thrice married, and had sixteen children, two of whom were baptized July 19, 1745, at Success, Ester and Magdalene by name. The witnesses were Ester and Magdalene Goetchius. The mother, Maria.

Mourits, baptized April 22, 1747, in Wolver Hollow. No mother mentioned.

PAPER NO. 1.

TRANSLATION.

Copy of a Letter to Domini Goetchius.

NEW YORK, March 9th, 1742-3.

DEAR SIR. The committee on the dispute between you and the Consistory members of Jamaica, &c. on Long Island, have elected it requisit to be ended, with therefore Ecclesiastical procedure, must to you, amicably the following questions propose, in expectation that you, in a discreet manner, distinctly on the same to them answer.

These are:

1st. If you inclined be to, you to submit, and with your answer on these questions, your actual belief to subject, to the Ecclesiastical Rules of the Low Dutch Reformed Church according to the National Synod of Dordrecht, anno, 1618 and 1619.

2d. If you are willing, you to subordinate to the Honorable Classis of Amsterdam and to honorably submit to her Apostolic utterance; also, concerning the present differences, or those which in the future may arise (that we hope not).

3d. If you truly promise about the grievance, that in regard to you in consideration may be to come, no other custom to shall make, than alone Ecclesiastical in writing, on the same.

The answer to be to the Committee of Right Rules of the Honorable Classis of Amsterdam.

4th and lastly;

If you out to the Honorable Consistory of Jamaica or any other Congregations that you serve, an Ecclesiastical Certificate of your membership have shown.

The Committee request of you, kindly, on these four articles a written answer to them to give.

When you this shall have done, so that you on the three first Articles fully state, and us thereof a written declaration, do promise in all sincerity the same to follow; so shall the Committee on you, permit the supposed grievance to be mediated.

This decision we hold Ecclesiastic, and therefore all becoming to be.

Wherefore, they in short, this of you expect.

Now Christlike greeting remain, &c.,

G. D. Bois,

In Virtue of the Committee.

The answer to your missive of the 9th of March find it good.

THE ANSWER.

HONORABLE SIRS :

Until now, to no opportunity have found for time to spend, about such unnecessary business. Require of you, amicably, what I must understand by the expression, "dispute between you and the Consistory members."

If a Mr. Consistory member, who abandons the Church office, can yet a Consistory be?

Wishing also amicably, that you, out of God's grace, light and revelation might find concerning this you do ; then should people you seriously hear. Desire no other Ecclesiastic treatment as such that hitherto regular be.

Request amicably, to know if possible, since the last Synod, your commission have received from your Classis, where it says under subordinate to be ; that you with such command appear (which I wish you to do to oblige).

On the 1st Question. I question you amicably, if you Domini Dorsius and Domini Frelinghuysen have removed ; in case not, and have not again to happened ; then explain my sub-ordination under Action of Synod of Dord, for that in my promotion already is history.

In case already therefore, I question you beforehand, if you have power for me to again ordain, to accept, to bind, &c.

On the 2d precept. Must know first, whether it is the pleasure of the Honorable Classis of Amsterdam, me to accept and protect as a member.

In case then, have I no account over to give, for and before, that you thereto committed be.

On the 3d precept. I acknowledge you for no Committee nor Right Rules mediators, therefore shall I yet in my freedom stand about you for mediators to acknowledge.

With such you do, will you in fact true impartiality show, will you mine accusers and accusations nothing let be know, and thus unanswered, black made by the Honorable Classis. Without doubt, shall the Honorable Classis you reward as in the gedoe of Domini Frelinghuysen.

On the last. We should esteem so much all your actions, when we such of you did inquire.

Lastly. Wish that you with a written answer their own work approve. Please to testify on what grounds, such business can pass, as wholly Ecclesiastic and becoming to be.

Respectfully remain your humble servant,

J. H. GOETCHIUS, D. M.,

on Long Island.

N. B. The writing delivered Apl. 30, 1743.

Myn Heer G. D. BOIS, to NEW YORK.

THOMAS ROMEYN, SR.

He was the son of Nicholas, and was born at Pompton, N. J., in March, 1729. He married Margaret Frelinghuysen, a daughter of Theodorus Jacobus, who emigrated in 1727. Died at Fonda, N. Y., Oct. 22, 1794. His wife died at Jamaica Dec. 23, 1757.

He appeared in Coetus Sept. 13, 1749, and wished to be recommended to the Classis of Amsterdam.

In November, 1752, he preached as a student of theology, for the first time, a trial sermon in Jamaica, accompanied by Frelinghuysen, his brother-in-law, and two days after, Nov. 10th, 1752, Jamaica and Oyster Bay united in a call on him, on condition that he should go to Holland for ordination.

The Church had had troubles enough and desired to avoid any more, on account of the irregular ordination of Goetchius.

April 10, 1753, he gave his departing sermon; arrived safely in Amsterdam, and was ordained Sept. 3, 1753.

April 9, 1754, he had returned, and was inducted Nov. 10, by Domini Verbryck.

After his settlement on Long Island, though a prudent man, he found it difficult to still the troubled waters. His call, also, was not unanimous. In March, 1755, he made a pastoral visitation from house to house, and met with rough handling from the friends of Goetchius.

On April 6, he celebrated the Lord's Supper and admitted sixteen members.

In 1757, at a meeting of the disaffected element another minister was called. (See later Paper No. 4).

He preached his farewell sermon on Nov. 30, 1760, from Ephesians 6, 24; and being a quiet and peaceful man, sought freedom from the strife in another field of labor, at Minisink, N. J.

PAPER No. 2.

TRANSLATION.

The Reverend, Thomas Romeyn.

Dear Sir: We of the underwritten Consistories together stand.

The congregation of Success have understood, that your Honor has a call under inspection, for the Revd. Johannes Frelinghuysen, nevertheless, so our information is; suppose for the congregation of Oyster Bay and partly Jamaica, even with inclusion of the undersigned congregations; a matter to us appearing extremely strange, because we have understood, with us to Success chosen be to inform about church matters, that Domini De Ronde is to be sent by Coetus to Oyster Bay, and together that, fully consenting to, but not Johannes Frelinghuysen; and further request we of you all friendly-like, that we want you about with these above said matters, not forward to go.

Thinking that it more shall tend to war than to peace; and if you then with your matter shall forward go, so find we ourselves obliged to go against you therein.

Anno 1753. To Success, the 3d Feb.

[NOTE.] There were no signatures attached, but the letter was written for the Church of Newtown and Success. It will be noticed that this letter is dated on the same day that Domini Romeyn was ordained in Amsterdam.

The call to Frelinghuysen appears never to have come to a head, probably on account of his death soon after, Sept. 15, 1754.

A FAMILY OF DOMINIES.

The Reverend Theodorus Jacobus Frelinghuysen emigrated to this country in 1727. Died, 1747. He married Eva Terhune of Flatbush. They had issue as follows:

Rev. Theodore. Married Elizabeth Syms. He preached in New Albany 1746. Supposed to have been drowned on his way to Holland.

Revs. Jacobus and Fredinandus, died with smallpox on their way to this country with licenses to preach, 1753.

Rev. Henrickus. Minister of the Gospel at Marbletown, Rochester, Wawarsing. Died, 1758. Will recorded in New York; Liber 21, Folio 94.

Margaret. Married the Rev. Thomas Romeyn, who preached in the Queens County Churches.

Anna. Married the Rev. William Jackson, who in 1757, was preaching on Staten Island.

Rev. John. Baptized at New Brunswick March 26, 1727. Died Sept. 15, 1754, at Jamaica. Married in 1750, Dinah Van-Bergh. He it is who was mentioned in the translated letter No. 2.

There was a little story connected with Theodorus Frelinghuy-sen, one of the family of ministers, which seems of interest. He preached in English to the soldiers who were sent to Albany for the protection of the frontier. In the spring of 1759, he took strong ground, though with little success, against the spirit of gaiety and fashion which a regiment of royal troops had introduced in that city. On one occasion, having preached an unusually earnest sermon against worldly follies, he found on Monday morning at his door, a pair of shoes, a staff, a silver coin, and a loaf of bread. He considered this an intimation to leave, which he in the fall of that year did.

The following letter (being marked No. 3), coming from Amsterdam, gives the disturbing element somewhat of a "calling down" and endeavors to inculcate a little of the spirit of forbearance and also a moral lecture.

The first of these is the fact that the earth is not a perfect sphere, but is flattened at the poles and bulged out at the equator. This is due to the centrifugal force of rotation, which tends to pull the material of the earth outwards from the axis of rotation. The second of these is the fact that the earth is not a perfect solid, but is composed of different layers of material. The outermost layer is the crust, which is composed of rocks and minerals. Below the crust is the mantle, which is composed of molten material. At the center of the earth is the core, which is composed of molten iron and nickel. The third of these is the fact that the earth is not a perfect sphere, but is flattened at the poles and bulged out at the equator. This is due to the centrifugal force of rotation, which tends to pull the material of the earth outwards from the axis of rotation. The fourth of these is the fact that the earth is not a perfect solid, but is composed of different layers of material. The outermost layer is the crust, which is composed of rocks and minerals. Below the crust is the mantle, which is composed of molten material. At the center of the earth is the core, which is composed of molten iron and nickel. “Right Honorable Sirs :

The Reverend Ritsma and De Ronde, Ministers and Heads of the Honorable Consistory of the Reformed Congregation at New York.”

Right Honorable Sirs and esteemed Colleagues.

We have your letters and the documents received, also that of the Reverend Ritsma dated the 20th of August, 1755, then that of the meeting at Peremus held the 3d of November, 1755, the which on the 25th of November was laid before the Consistory at New York and suppose the conclusion there, undersigned by the Revd. Ritsma as presser and regulator wherein to disciplin; that to the purpose of the gathering to Peremus for their advice is extremely well satisfied. Legitimately their intentions have not been able to reconcile wherefore they the former Censure over Goetchius accusing him of ill behaviour and improper intrusion, and the meeting of Peremus, &c., have in short referred the whole business to the Classis.

Underwritten with the name of Gerard Haaghoort alike for all the Directors' names. This all finally concluding with a P. S. wherein and by hand confirmed that it be true, and something in respect to the contents of this writing, something concerning the future management of the affairs of Coetus, also undersigned by Ritsma and De Ronde.

After such a bulky, so tedious and for a great part unintelligible sort of matter to have to read, must we confess to be affected with the utmost surprise, pity and indignation. Certainly can not comprehend, how thereof people, how thereof Christian Teachers could changed become to such a kind of proceeding, in the “biting and devouring” of one another, but years after one to single out; and not the better alone could choose, and with that all conciliatory state, should imitators be of the meek, lowly and charitable Jesus. Even so it seems right to think that charity, the "livery" of the Christian, is only hate, envy, anger working, vitiating, detestable, eager self-seeking, out of evil is, without a proper conception that enmities, contentions, jealousy, angry disputes and discord, shuts anybody without God's kingdom. Where shall this dear brothers, what shall thereof of this all become.

We can you with assurance tell, that we no part of the world know where it is so in our Church harbored as in New York. So in this, that part alone of the foreign country churches, to the Classis give as much to do as the others together.

Shall there then not harmony to be expected, and an end be to all the old disagreements and disputes, that during so many years have dominated church and state, and households divided, and God's wrath over the community excited.

Shall people not once think that the ordering is difficult over the prevailing conditions, not only in the murmurings but for New York and it particular.

Perceive we not the tempestuous clouds on all sides moving ; reveals He nothing in this wise, of His terrible anger from the heavens, have we reason for to believe that He whose frequent ordering of His household, indulgently us before others shall spare, when in reluctance for the increased light, vigorous when others sin. Nay, beloved brethren, nothing is of it, that we, so we a reasonably sound course of action, could and should bring to such an extravagant inference.

Therefore, praying and supplicating the Lord Jesus we yet about, as for the health of your souls, with the welfare of the congregation, for the bowels of charity, that you all of one accord, right may plan for the understriving fires to suppress, and none to kindle anew or set going, either through instigation or through neglect.

In regard to the letter of the Reverend Ritsma, written the 20th of August, last year, we learn with sorrow of no apparent cessation of the unrest on Long Island out of the removal of Domini Goetchius and the calling of Domini Romeyn to Oyster Bay and Jamaica ; and hereto on the devout purpose of the Classis, how earnest they that desire ; is not satisfied the old bargain of the year 1748 to hold fast anew.

Merits by us on such, not the least remark, and is wise thereof never a business from off the Classis hand to come. Slight cause, so foreign to their complete interest.

Must their resolution there over, which your honor is acquainted with, undimished remain, stand sustained, and concerning we entreat you and request on it all emphatical, that you to the out-working of the same will co-operate and not there against, besides the least appearance, by lending an ear to, will give, of together combining with the disobedient.

On the last mentioned writing to Peremes, on ordered; the further action can by your honor's Classes; that in a great part can not be understood for the obscure style and language, bad spelling and out drawn prolixity. No other answer given than that all the procedure and the censuring of the one the other side, for unlawful and null declared.

And in the matter nothing can be done before that men a law-ful Cetus hence hold, the matter therein differently be treated, and a short, exact and plain account do to the Classis, legal proof of must be, alone of essential business. We request that you therefore due knowledge please to give to the heads of these together coming to Peremas, that this matter before your honorable Consistory before have brought, and on which we order on account of nothing, either soundly to write.

Herewith your honors, the peace, the love, the unity and orderliness once again admonished about thereto, to pray for the light and influence of the Holy Spirit. So sign we with sincere love, right honorable Sirs and esteemed colleagues, in our Classical gathering, your willing and affectionate colleagues.

Addressed to

"The Right Honorable and very learned gentleman, Mr. Eggo Tonkus Van Hoevenberge, Right Reverend preacher in the Reformed congregation of Chi of Rynbeek."

Instrument of the calling for the Right Honorable Eggo Tonkus Van Hoevenberg.

VERY HONORABLE SIR.

We, Elders and Deacons of the three Low Dutch Congregations, Newtown, Jamaica and Hempstead in Queens County, on Long Island, in the province of New York, with each other are united and together met in the name of God, in order to, in the fear of the Lord, an Orthodox Shepherd and Teacher in our beforesaid Low Dutch Congregations to call; and whereas we have been given abundant testimony of your honor's great ability; so, according to the desire of the three congregations in our gathering, it is unanimously settled, for the Right Honorable Hur Eggo Tonkus Van Hoovenberg, present preacher of Rhinebeck to call for our Shepherd and Teacher.

Simultaneous, we then subscribed also in the name of the congregations and in the presence of the Right Honorable Sir, Lambertus De Ronde, preacher in New York, who our congregations at different times has served. In the name of the congregations; you, Honorable Domini, Eggo Tonkus Van Hoovenberg, call for regular shepherd and teacher in these our Low Dutch congregations of the Reformed Church, for the sure word of God among us to preach; the Holy Sacrament, instituted by Christ to administer; and further, everything to perform that the office of a true servant of the Lord Jesus Christ demands, according to His Holy Word and the good order of the Church requires, and conducting everything as much as possible after the ways of the Low Dutch Reformed Church here in this country customary; according to the Synod of Doodrecht, held in 1618, 1619.

Though yet a little further to determine, about your honor's preaching service, the congregations so appoint; your honor, us not alone the service to perform on Sunday, but also on the so called feast times and the *preparatory sermon for the Sacrament, according to the custom among us; also with the fast and prayer days, and over which order of observance of the service and how often in either congregation the Consistories further shall speak on your honor's arrival.

But to encourage you in the acceptance of this our call, so promise we Consistories and our successors, to your honor to give a yearly salary of the sum of one hundred pounds, New York money, and that every half year the just half, and that continued as long as your honor the above mentioned service among us shall observe.

To Wit: That the Congregation of Newtown for your honor's service shall pay the half of the salary, the which is £50. Also with the half of the fire wood, free from all cost.

Jamaica £30 and Hempstead £20, as also their ratio of their payment for your honor's service, the fire-wood and cost.

Above that, shall your honor have free lodging, and a piece of land for two cattle and a horse for all service; with which last they supply your Honor in performance of the office in the separate congregations; the which are, from Jamaica to Hempstead. 8 English miles, and from Jamaica to Newtown, 5 English miles. Further, shall fulfill in regard to such, your Honor, as we become indebted to a sincere teacher.

Moreover. We then alike with all affection, your Honor, Domini Eggo Tonkus Van Hoevenberg, this our call intrust with. So we desire your Honor, also with all importunity, that your Honor the same in the fear of the beloved Lord to promptly accept of, in consideration of the need of our community, and who for a considerable time have been devoid of a qualified, regular Shepherd and Teacher, and so lamenting that we the word on the appointed time of God's service cannot hear for the welfare of the spiritual Zion.

In the mean while, with all love and esteem, we implore your honor to come, and that it shall please the Great Shepherd to behind follow the reaper with his godlike mercy, and so tend to the great making of His all Holy name, and in winning to salvation of many souls.

All this done in our church gathering to Newtown.

[NOTE.] Van Hoevenberge appears to have declined the call. Oyster Bay not joining with the others, being, perhaps, still loyal to Romeyn. Only one Elder from Jamaica signing, viz: Daniel Durye.

The congregation at Jamaica being very much at loggerheads with each other, as would appear from the Paper No. 5 following, written to Classis of Amsterdam. One other fact to emphasize the feelings of the Dutch people regarding the troubles in Jamaica: The Baptismal Register there contained no entries after 1753 for forty years, while the Oyster Bay Church Register was continued and the people who had attended at Jamaica had their children baptised in the church at Wolver Hollow.

The next paper No. 5, written to the Classis of Amsterdam, needs no comment, as it speaks for itself and with a meekness of spirit perfectly in keeping with the Dutch characteristics.

PAPER No. 5.

[TRANSLATION.]

Right Honorable, Highly learned Sirs, Father and Brethren.

Whereas, the Consistory of Jamaica, have on a friendly request, for us to give testimony of the truth of their matter, that they imputing to errors, upon your table bring with protest, concerning their wronging and oppression.

So having, we in this will not in neglect remain, but therein to speak sincerely to proceedings, and as much as we are conscious of, in this your honors, to communicate and conscientiously testify, and thence shall look, from your honors the righting of unjust treatment by Coetus and to your Classis here in this land.

It is then history, after the removal of Domini Goetchius, that the Classis had decreed, that therefore a new Consistory in Jamaica should be chosen, out of both parties; but whereto that party that it with Domini Goetchius holds, would have nothing to do, and properly with the other party together a Consistory to choose; so that these were necessitated to go on with the choosing of a Consistory according to the rules of the Honorable Classis of Amsterdam.

That Consistory in an Ecclesiastical way was chosen, and also inducted by the Honorable Sir, Domini Arondeus as being lawful preacher, and although they obey the commands of the Classis afterwards in every respect, whereon the other party by Goetchius it not let assent to.

But Domini Ritsema, preacher in New York, successfully persuaded for yet a similar Consistory to choose, opposed to that other already made, and whereas the other party, proceeding against the protest of the lawful Consistory, moreover have fearlessly done, although in an unexcellent way against all equity and right, but courageous continue, and their chosen Consistory was permitted to be installed in the English Presbyterian Church; thereupon did they further go, and with Domini John Frelinghuisen, who them therein was willing to concur, although against the orders of the Classis; calling one Thomas Romeyn therein with the Congregation of Oyster Bay, that by Domini Frelinghuisen persuaded be thereto ; and somewhat also to such an unorderly procedure, the Honorable Domini De Ronda, also preacher in New York, had labored for it to come, and advised the congregations, themselves, not from one to separate, but with each other to remain, that had jointly one preacher equally to call as before, and can us not assist.

But men covet craftily for the three congregations, beforehand. And so is Romeyn there come, and with his coming has affected great schism and discord in Jamaica, as also with us, and also in Newtown, that formerly quiet and peaceable our God's service could perform.

Yea ; so far got their tyranny with the before-named Thomas Romeyn, that whenever we with Newtown and Jamaica another teacher would call, be they at every turn at once to oppose, and that men us after following with shameful leugens and lasteringe in so far even, our Church home and land to take away may, that we already ten years among ourselves had, and having received nothing out of their hands.

HONORABLE SIRs,

This is "the not otherwise" than perfectly true, without the particular things done to us.

In the end we hope and wish, that we yet equal rights may find in your exalted assembly, and that your Honors this maturely shall consider, that we, not longer every day about to run, like wandering sheep without a shepherd.

The blessing of the Lord be over your people and highly Honorable Assembly.

Remaining with all high esteem, Right Honorable, very learned Reverend fathers and brethren

Your honors'

Servants and brethren.

Success, the 20th March, 1759.

The paper No. 6, following the one written to Amsterdam by Success, might be taken as a reply, but not so ; it comes as the Apostolic utterance of the Church, and is sent by Classis that met at New Brunswick to the different Congregations.

PAPER No. 6.

[TRANSLATION.]

To the Right Honorable Consistories in the Province of New York.

Right Honorable and much loved Colleagues.

Your letter signed by D. D. Erichsen and Leydt at New Brunswick the 27th of June, 1760, with the annexed document, is well to our hand come; wherein the event is given to us exactly and according to truth; concurring with the information that we have received from the other brethren.

It serves to our complete satisfaction that the Christlike and very cordial arousing done by our former letter, for the hurtful schisms and miserable discord to abandon, so inconsistent with the teaching of the gospel of the meek Saviour; and themselves mutually in one Coetus to unite, in so far the attention, and the effect it has had with the Honorable Brethren of the other side, that they themselves have manifested a disposition for the estrangement to take away and there-over with each other to enter into negotiation.

But to our greatest regret, we at once perceive that these so desiring reunion, and not loyally come to a stand, but interrupt, or at least put off, is because the men who will first determine over the Articles and conditions, those men in either party will not be able to agree.

The brethren that style themselves the Conferentie gathering, demand that the decision in important matters, whereabout are differences, with the Classis shall rest, and the whole matter in such a case shall before be carried by both parties.

The present Coetus answers that the matter of the old hostility with superiority of votes ought to be settled in compliance with *Article 31 of the Ecclesiastical Rules. The Coetus asserts the legality of the examinations and promotions of the students ; that the already done promotions, so few hence done may be, as any lawful baptisms, that the former and the rest with the congregations, absolute, further then therefrom not to abdicate.

* The 31st Article says: "If any person conceive himself aggrieved by the decision of a lesser Assembly, he shall have the liberty and right of appealing to a higher; and that which is determined by a majority of voices in such assembly shall be held decisive and binding unless it can be demonstrated to be contrary to the Word of God and these Articles."

The Conferentie assembly maintain that these powers to the Coetus do not appertain, whereas the Classis, never a Coetus, have avowed and conceded unanimously their sub-authority and right by express proviso, for to examine and to promote and to sentence about the doctrin, as evidence out of their letter of November, 1739, and right because the same is reserved for the Classes by the Dordse Synodus.

The substance of the "both sides" letters, has been referred to the Honorable Classis, and by the same maturely considered, and the same have instructed us on the union of both parties once again on it earnestly on to urge ; and concerning the points in dispute, that the union delays, her feelings to you to communicate.

The Honorable assembly is of judgment concerning the first, that the superiority of the votes must certainly have place ; it is properly the nature of any gathering, also ecclesiastical advance. By means of that the convoked members of the Classis freely settle honorable protests. It likewise serves to bring the subordination by inferior to greater Church assemblies.

Concerning the second and important, can we the already done promotions well not approve, as wherein those finished on the vows with the Lowlands church, but will also thereover according to much rigorousness not judge or endeavor to annul, only for peace sake in condition allow and the before finished hold.

It is also so, that the Classis can grant no liberty to the Coetus about the examinations, which alone belongs to a lawful Classis, though the Classis will well in case an extraordinary question may come before all yieldingness exercise for the matter to be instructed about por re nata to act, while the Coetus the same ; a laudable testimony of such person to furnish concerning his ability and knowledge according to truth in the Holy Theology.

But shall this indulgence of the Classis have no place as long as the Coetus by the bond of love, peace and harmony, not becomingly with one another is united.

Let therefore Right Honorable Sirs and much loved brethren, our pacific opinions and counsel only thereto unjust about, with the co-operation of the God all merciful, the welfare of the newly planted congregations, the underlying foundation to free confidence, by it the true faith in Christ to promote.

We will hope and wish that none of you were in the disorders and thereout shall draw, wanting independence of his colleague's, pleasure, and in place of the wound to heal, the same unpleasant to make, more, much more that this our answer the ground might lay to a hearty union.

If we God's honor, the extension of Christ's holy kingdom, the interest and establishment of the particular Congregations to heart got, and we thereto blessed instruments will be, how hard must we then not pray for the spirit of love and moderation and watch against any imperious Spirit of Diotrefhes, and thereto all wrong purposes abominate and sinful passions suppress, also, that all some varnish and assumption might have of good ardour, for us the Lord's approval thereto to set.

It becomes you therefore then, in our behalf, on it heartily to pray, and as married brethren, the hands in one to strike, the several bonds to reunite, and therefore as loyal sons of the truth, to have the love to the true.

Will then with reverence one the other surpass; the one the other exceedingly esteem; then themselves each other's burdens bear and also the law of Christ fulfill.

This shall our subject for thanksgiving be, to the God of peace; our joyful consolation, and the reward be for our brotherly and well meaning counsels.

We conclude with the wish prayer of Paul to the Romans, 15, 5 & 6, and commend you and the congregations to the protection of God and His blessed word.

We remain with true affection, Right Honorable much loved colleagues, your obedient servants and brothers. In the name of the Honorable Classis of Amsterdam.

To the Low Dutch Reformed Consistories and Congregations in our land.

The Coetus wish the peace, happiness and salvation of Jesus Christ.

Whereas a letter has come from the Honorable Classis of Amsterdam to the Consistories in this remote region, and earnestly advising the union in one Coetus, the two hindering articles to decide, for the good of our Church to forward.

So is it, that the Coetus have thought good, to the better arousing and complying, to make service of the letter of the Honorable Classis through the usual copy, and with this to declare their sincere intention and earnest desire for universal peace and union with the brethren that without the Coetus be, in one Coetus to acquire.

Whereunto the Coetus desires not otherwise, than that everything should orderly become after God's word, Constitution of the Low Dutch Reformed Church and lawful Coetus, and so follow quickly the love and unity.

ABRAHAM KETELTAS.

Was born in New York in 1733. Preached in New Jersey from 1757 to '60. Died Sept. 30, 1798.

The writer has been told that he was the great grandfather of Recorder Hackett (Abraham Keteltas Hackett) of Manhattan. By the "old people" the name was pronounced Kittle-tas.

From a historical discourse delivered by Sylvester Woodbridge, Jr., pastor, at the dedication of Christ's First Church Chapel, Raynor, South Hempstead, Nov. 29, 1840.

"In the year 1762 the Revd. Abraham Keteltas supplied the Congregation for a short time.

"He was accustomed, says an aged and highly respected member of the Church, who relates from memory, to preach alternate Sabbaths at New York and Hempstead. In the city it was said that he preached in French. It is recorded on the stone which marks the place of his burial, that he had frequently officiated in three different languages, having preached in the Dutch and French languages in his native city of New York. He was a graduate of Yale College in 1752, and was ordained by the Presbytery of New York, in 1758.

"He possessed unusual talents, which were improved by profound erudition. The increase of the Congregation, which was rapid under the labors of Mr. Keteltas, received a great check at the Revolution."

He preached as a "supply" in the Dutch congregations from 1760 to 1762, and on April 28, 1762, a regular call was extended to him. See Paper No. 7.

The call was accepted by him and after the first sermons he was paid, as per paper No. 9. On April 18, 1763, he receipted for his half year's salary, £16.5.

The matter, of necessity, was referred to the Classis of Amsterdam, with what result, will be revealed further on.

THE CALL TO ABRAHAM KETELTAS.

The Elders of the four united Congregations of Newtown, Jamaica, Hempstead and Oyster Bay, being together assembled on the 28th day of April, in the year of our Lord Jesus Christ 1762, about a Reformed orthodox minister to call, for our four above mentioned Reformed Congregations, situated in Queens County, in the province of New York.

Whereas, be it known, that (by our request) the very honorable and godly gentleman, Abraham Keteltas, residing being in the County above mentioned ; his preaching to our congregations, appears to have given very good satisfaction, and to hear, have in the general crowded in.

Therefore, have the congregations, the Elders of the four congregations, on encouraged ; and they are, just now, Elders and congregations with heart and soul agreed.

And we, the Elders of the four congregations are commanded that into their care the business shall take, and exhorted by their Elders office the honorable Mr. Abraham Keteltas, shepard and teacher to call, to the end, for their regular shepard and teacher to be.

He in the first place, promising himself to submit to the Articles of the Low Dutch Reformed Church and the Honorable Classis of Amsterdam. We underwritten Elders of the four congregations, find ourselves obliged for the Christian Church of this place, without any neglect, to provide that honorable persons Christ teach, and the work of the free full grace, to the salvation of sinners, with us constantly be taught.

Therefore, we Elders with heart and soul, so call you, very honorable, learned Sir, Abraham Keteltas. Yea, we call your honor with this, by virtue of, and in the name of all our congregations. We call your honor, in the fear of the Lord our Christian congregations of this place to supply ; with a full blessing of the gospel, to their all upbuilding in the fear of the Lord, and that your honor, it request, with a heavenly manner, and thus endeavor to allure and to draw, in order to a heavenly minded life to lead, and that after you following, God will incline your heart to come to our help and grant you as God's favour, enough of the power of his sanctifying spirit.

That we, you appoint (with good health) two times each month in the year, on either day of the Lord to preach out of the power that God gives you, and that four months, once on either day of the Lord, and also on the feast days, to be done according to our church customs of this place; and also preparation sermon for the Holy Sacrament.

The congregations of Newton and Jamaica commune together in a body, as also the congregations of Hempstead and Oyster Bay, turn by turn; and that every three months, there you the Sacrament serve, there must you visitations do, and the Elders in the other village the visitations do, where you no Sacrament serve.

Further, must you the discipline exercise, with the advice of your Elders, and all carefulness to usage, and if necessary with a neighboring minister to consult; in this manner also the catechising; consulting you your Elders, where and how, the time and place to set; the sick in their need, thereto visit with relief, and their faith to sustain; and whatever God, of his upright and faithful man-servant demands; and this is all to the honor of God's Holy name and to the salvation of all true believers. Amen.

We the Elders of the four united congregations, promise and assure you, very honorable sir, Abraham Keteltas, a salary of — New York money, and a house and lot, with all the necessary appurtenances, situated in Jamaica, bought and set for a Low Dutch shepherd and minister.

We underwritten Elders bind ourselves by our hands, every half year, you Heer Keteltas to pay the half of the above mentioned sum, and we question not of our following the same shall do, from time to time, as long as you shall serve on these conditions.

We hope that you freely and cheerfully this call shall accept and take, with a full blessing of the gospel, and we shall you Heer Abraham Keteltas with esteem, honor and love, embrace and welcome. Day and date as above.

To the Congregations of Queens County.

Honorable Brethren. According to a request, the undersigned have come together, to consider the acceptability of Domine Keteltas; which is undertaken by us in the fear of the Lord.

Whereby we found that Domine Keteltas on an important point of Doctrine with us did not agree, and whereto, we (according to Synodal Resolutions) could not abdicate from.

Wherefore it is necessary that the consummation of our business, yet a little while shall be put off, the more, as that Do. Keteltas himself willingly has offered thereover for himself further to inform, or to permit instruction.

Whereto, we, his honor all assistance have offered; wherefore we request you people, Do. Keteltas nor us not to take amiss, that we could not bring the matter to an end, for that Do. Keteltas nothing against his conscience can properly do, nor we also not, and since by the delay, no prejudice to the matter even is. So are we necessitated to a further convincing; us to set at rest, in the hope and expectation that God this darkness shall clear up.

(Being an original letter addressed to the Right Honorable Consistories of the four United Congregations of Queens County.)

Right Honorable Sirs and Brethren, comprising the Consistories of the four united Congregations of Queens County.

Your missive concerning the call of Domini A. Keteltas to preach in your Congregations, is us well to hand come.

We have the contents broadly answered in a letter to the Revd. Ritzema, de Ronde, Van Sindere and Rubel, and in one to the Revd. Keteltas, who the same will direct to your Honors communicate.

We have us therein with regard to it (the proposal to us) plainly executed, and so we trust, with all carefulness and discretion interpreted, and hope that the business, according to our prelude, may be completed to mutual satisfaction.

That it not otherwise our intention, than the welfare of your souls, as of all other Foreign Country Churches that with us maintain brotherly correspondence, a subject of gladness shall be.

Wherewith we now pray for all prosperity and blessing on your honorable members and congregations, and with all affection and esteem remain right honorable Sirs and Brethren, your honors' obedient servants in the name and cause of the Honorable Classis of Amsterdam.

FROM HOIE'S KINGSTON RECORDS.

"In 1766 arose the memorable contest in the Kingston church, between the two factions known as the Coetus and the Conferentie.

"The former party, generally speaking, advocated separation from and the latter connection with and subordination to, the Classis of Amsterdam, in Holland, in all matters relating to ecclesiastical procedure and government.

“The contest resulted in an open rupture in the Kingston church, the majority of its membership being in sympathy with the ‘Conferentie,’ while the minority, under the leadership of Domine Meyer, advocated the cause of the ‘Coetus.’

This was followed by the remarkable trial and suspension of Domine Meyer ; his withdrawal with a portion of the Congregation and the maintenance of religious services apart from those held by the ‘Conferentie’ in the old church edifice.”

A COPY OF DOMINI BOLEN'S CALL.

To the Most Reverend and very learned Fathers in Christ.

Since it not alone is certain that the whole world by nature in wickedness lies, but even is foredoomed before God; and it has after pleased God almighty out of His good pleasure, a means to salvation for fallen man to find out, and thereof blessed knowledge to give, through the preaching of the Holy Evangelist, that the faithful one eternally might be saved.

So is then above all things necessary that to solicitude be, that where the Gospel cannot be proclaimed by reason of the lack of a minister, that that lack of, elsewhere may be supplied, that the Evangelist there also his support might have. On that account is it then that we undersubscribed Consistories of the four united Congregations in Queens County on the Long Island Nassau, in the Colony of New York;

namely { Jameca,
Nieutoun, Heempste, Oesterbay.

solicit and humbly request you, Exalted Reverends, for our four united Congregations about to look, after an orthodox minister for us and our youth, necessary and proper for this place the work of a true minister of the Gospel to perform, in the preaching, catechising and administering of the Holy Sacrament, and to the same qualified according to Church regulations, and us speedily towards to send a lawful teacher for our service and Church, because the call made on the Honorable Mr. Keteltas have not continued in, for the Honorable Classis it abandoned, as his Honor, touching the Eternal Sonship of God's Son can not subscribe to.

And since a laborer, according to the saying of the Saviour, "is worthy of his hire," Luke 10, 7, and it is not too much that those sowing the spiritual to reap the material. So promise we on our part to a yearly salary of one hundred and fifteen pounds, New York money, whereof the half, every half year promptly shall be paid.

His dwelling house will be to Jamaica, there one Bogaart is.

We for one horse and one cow beast of three.

Firewood shall to his dwelling be provided.

What the expenses belonging to the hither coming, according to account, those shall at his coming over be paid. Whensoever, after the first sermon, his Honor shall be presented with a half year's salary, beginning from that time of the acceptance of his call.

We the authorized Consistories, present Elders and Deacons of our congregations, underwritten this call as our own act about all what therein mentioned and is expressed, faithfully to fulfill alike, as also our successors, that in our place chosen shall be in continuation, from time to time the same to do.

HERMANUS LANCELOT BOELEN.

In answer to the urgent necessity of the Congregations, a man was found to "hazard the call" in the person of Domini Boelen.

He arrived from Holland Feb. 2, 1766, and on the 4th delivered his introductory discourse, from Psalms 34 : 12.

Was inducted Feb. 16, 1766, by Domini Van Sinderen (who wrote the call), with a text from Hebrews, 13 : 7.

He was a widower, accompanied by his daughter, and his language is said to have been too pure and high-flown for the people. He was of small stature but had a stentorian voice.

During his ministry the contentions in the Church were settled, by a convention of ministers and elders, held in New York Oct. 15, 1771. He did not attend.

The wounds were not healed. Apparently he was released in 1772. During the Revolution he was a Tory, and his warm prayers for the king exasperated the Whigs. He returned to Holland in 1780.

SOLOMON FROELIGH.

He was born at Red Hook May 29, 1750. Studied under D. Romeyn and J. H. Goetschius. Was licensed to preach in 1774, and the Queens County Churches were his first charge. He was ordained and installed at Jamaica June 11, 1775.

He married Rachel Vanderbeck in 1771; and died Oct. 8, 1827.

He was early impressed, under the preaching of Schuneman, and begged his father, who was a farmer, to give him an education. Through his mother's influence, he finally prevailed.

He was an ardent Whig, and was so outspoken in the pulpit that when the British entered Long Island he was compelled to flee from his congregations, narrowly escaping. He went to Hackensack, and accompanied Dr. Livingston on horseback to the north on the west side of the Hudson.

He became prominent in the councils of the Church, and strove to heal the wounds made in former conflicts; and his preaching at Hackensack resulted in more than two hundred being admitted to the Church in 1800 on profession. He was made D. D. in 1811 by Rutgers College. De Ronde reports to Synod in 1775 that on Sunday, June 11, he had assisted at the installation of Froeligh, who in the afternoon preached his introductory sermon from Isaiah 62 : 1.

Sometime after the service, it is said, De Ronde asked the Rev. Abraham Keteltas, a Presbyterian minister present, "who is this Froeligh? What is his father's occupation?" Keteltas replied, "He is a farmer's son." De Ronde rejoined, "Oh, these farmer ministers have no dignity." Keteltas replied, "Why I am surprised, dominie; this morning you-told us it mattered not whether a minister was a son of a Boer or Burgemeester." "I said so, indeed, in the pulpit," rejoined De Ronde, "I must say something there for the ears of the people, but feel differently."

William P. Kuypers (a brother to Zachariah, who was called later to Queens County), laboring under a misconception, accused Mr. Froeligh of defrauding a man on Long Island of a watch, which was explained by his hasty flight when the British entered the Island, allowing no opportunity for him to pay for it. This question about the watch resulted in a Church trial on April 25, 1800, in Wolver Hollow, the account of which here follows :

At a meeting of the Consistory of the Church of Oyster Bay at the house of Jacobus Van Voorhis on Friday the 25th of April, 1800.

RESOLVED : That Mr. Suydam bring forward his evidences to support the charge alleged against Mr. Hoogland. The evidences were as follows :

First. To all whom it may concern, this serves to certify that Tunis Hoogland did inform the Rev'd Wm. P. Kuypers that the Rev. Solomon Froeligh had purchased a watch of Mr. Abraham Schenck, for which he had not rendered satisfaction. I told him further, that after the conclusion of the war, the Rev. S. Froeligh came upon the Island and as soon the said Mr. Schenck heard of it, went unto him and asked him for payment for the said watch. Mr. Froeligh answered him that he could take the said watch back again ; then Mr. Schenck said that he had had the watch so long in his possession that he would not take it again, but insisted upon the money ; then Mr. Froeligh told him that if he would not take it he should neither have the watch nor the money ; to this Mr. Schenck replied that if he would be so bad as that, he might keep the watch and money both for he could live yet without either of them.

I testify this to the truth, as witness my hand.

Wm. P. Kuypers.

Cornelius Suydam saith he heard Tunis Hoogland say that Solomon Froeligh had bought a watch of Abraham Schenck and that Mr. Froeligh went over the other side and returned after the war and he said that Mr. Schenck asked him for the money ; he told him he must take the watch. Mr. Schenck told him he could not take the watch he had had it so long ; he Mr. Froeligh told him he should not have the watch nor the money. Mr. Schenck told him he could live without the watch or the money ; this conversation was about as he says three years ago or a little more.

Johannes Kashow saith that Tunis Hoogland came to his house and told him he was willing to leave his dispute and Mr. Suydam's to the Consistory ; he saith that he and Mr. Suydam went to Tunis Hoogland some time after and Hoogland then denied that he had said he would leave it to the Consistory but that he was not afraid to leave it to them.

Barnt Snediker saith that being on the Marsh or Commons at South and Tunis Hoogland and his brother Cornelius he told him he wanted all the grass for himself and Cornelius ; he asked him if Floyd had not grass enough for him ; he said no, Cornelius wanted a freight for himself but that Tunis had all the hay ; he says it was two years last fall.

Peter Hegeman saith the same as Barnt Snediker he thinks it to be two years.

Rem Hegeman saith that he and his wife being at Mr. Suydam's, Tunis Hoogland and his wife came there ; his wife asked Mr. Hoogland if the wench came there if he would send word. Mr. Hoogland said if Mr. Suydam requested it he would. Mr. Suydam desired he would, he Mr. Suydam saith he has had no word.

Jacobus Van Vorhis saith that he heard Tunis Hoogland say that the wench had served her time out, and would have nothing to do with her.

To the foregoing charges Tunis Hoogland saith he is not guilty.

Gabriel Duryea saith being present at the conversation between the Rev. Wm. Kuypers and Mr. Hoogland, he the said Mr. Kuypers said that Mr. Froleigh frequented Courts and horse-racing and that he had money of the Congregation in hand. Tunis said that Mr. Froleigh had bought the watch of Abraham Schenck, and that Mr. Froleigh preached at Success and there he offered the watch to Mr. Schenck for he had no money to pay for the same ; then Mrs. Schenck made reply, let him keep the watch he will pay for it some time or other, then Mr. Hoogland said Mr. Schenck had better take the watch than run the venture of the money; he says the conversation was four years or more.

Phebe Duryea saith the same as Gabriel except she says it was five years.

Abraham Snediker saith that he and Mr. Hoogland was at Johnnes Kashow's the evening, the next morning Kashow's son came to Mr. Snedikers and asked him if he remembered that Hoogland had said he would leave their dispute to the Consistory. Snediker said there was nothing said about the Consistory.

Cornelius Hoogland saith that the hay cut on the Marsh he mowed for himself but after mowing his meadow he had more hay than he needed, he then sold it to Tunis Hoogland.

Jerome S. Luister saith that he was at Mr. Suydam's and Mr. Suydam told him he was advised by a certain person to complain of Mr. Hoogland. If it had not been for that he would not have complained; the person was Johannes Kashow.

Isaac Bogart one of the Consistory saith that Mr. Suydam said that Johannes Kashow had complained and Suydam was asked he said if it was worth notice he say'd he thought it was.

The Consistory after Mature Deliberation :—

Resolved that Tunis Hoogland ought in their opinion to be instated in the said office of Elder.

PAPER No. 12.

[TRANSLATION.]

To the Honorable Classis of Amsterdam, &c., Right honorable Fathers and Brothers in Christ.

On the 8th of June this year have we the honor had to inform your honors, that we have received your favor an the 5th of June via St. John, with those to the called Coetus, and also to our four committies in the matter of Queens County.

What new in the matter is done inform we you by this.

That we have repeatedly striven with Mr. Ketteltas in conversation, and all that was in our power to do, to constrain him, and his error to understand, and to a right comprehension to bring; that sometimes appears to be of good fruit, though at last his obstinacy revealed, so that we his taunting could not escape, as if we thought that the truth was alone in the Lowlands Church, and that we, blindfold followers of the opinions in point, the only wise generation of Czaars, &c.

The effect on the community has been, that they separated from him and him released; that it a great breach has made in the community (in whose midst he yet abides), and only a few more being found who adhere to him, as proof got from the next call to this place, about which we little have to say, as that speaks for itself.

This one nevertheless was by our desire, because the call was written by Domini Ulpearius Van Sinderen as consulting, and so the orderliness in the same is observed in the call.

Nevertheless it was not meant, that the whole Classis was given the power for a preacher about to look, but the power only and alone to the deputy ad res extras was referred, and that to them the full power was given about after a capable subject to look for, the which when found, to the Classis to represent, and there by the whole Classis yet further given over must be.

Observe that the Congregation desire a speedy execution of this call, and we being conscious of the difficult situation of the Counsel of Amsterdam, for a preacher to send, that so it might happen that there no fit opportunity in Amsterdam may be, that he there, via. London may be sent.

For that the need of the congregation demand an all possible speedy forwarding. Whereto, we can not otherwise as from heart to wish, that God your undertaking bless, to the sending of a worthy person, in the fear of God, hazarding the answer to the congregations. And hereby, the way further opened may be, for the mind of other congregations up to arouse, for preachers out of the fatherland to be sent.

Inform we of our purpose in October to assemble in reference to the mentioned letter of the Honorable Classis, in expectation that we among, of it, yet further ontw should receive on the second pamphlet of Domini Leydt, and that of Domini Ritzema thereupon, as also what the missionary Hardenberg has edited. We must say that we in our expectations, have to hereto been disappointed, because Domini Hardenberg our language has yet to know with *intelligibleness, yet no single word with us communicated, nor alone in his company was, although a few run after.

We understand that it is not to his satisfaction, and the rumor got that Domini Leydt who now by us appears to have finished

NOTE.—This letter in the handwriting of Do Rubel.

* From Hoie's Kingston Record.

This circumstance will be better appreciated when it is stated that, upon the invitation of Domine Mancius in 1732, to become the colleague of Domine Vas, at Kingston, doubt was expressed in his call as to his ability to acquire the pronunciation of the Low Dutch language, so as to be understood in it. Therefore, "continues the call," in order to preserve unity, harmony in the Congregation, we make this stipulation in advance, that if you do not learn the Low Dutch pronunciation in the space of two years, and our people complain that they cannot understand you, then, in accordance with the Church constitution, the Reverend Consistory of the Church of Kingston shall assemble ecclesiastically in regard to this matter, assisted by two ministers of the Low Dutch Reformed Church of the Province, and if it is the sentiment of the majority that after the space of two years you cannot be understood by the Congregation in the Low Dutch language, we shall be released from our obligation in regard to the promised salary, and otherwise not.

the per legers the Classis shall justly entertain, now already being opposed; new demonstration of their obstinacy in their purpose, as those opposing just before the on coming of Hardenberg, three students in divinity have made, and people inform us that the opposition, those, with the first opportunity in the Congregations shall import.

In regard to that, the Congregation of Fishkill got to such a height that nearly the whole Congregation from the Consistory is afgescheurt. The majority of the Consistory members want a preacher there from Holland, that hardly so out of the community with them can obtain; one of these newly made Dominies will crowd in. What this doing will yet finally bring forth, the outcome shall teach, &c.

Now this is certain, the teacher's eyes are coming open and we perceive herein no disposition as which gives hope for declared independence and over all the Congregations with teachers be provided that the Constitution of the Lowlands Church firmly observe.

One of our name in the spring the trouble inspected for the matter of †Tappan to settle, by truly the ground to be laid by a written drawn agreement, but after the departure, became dispersed on the Dominie's account, which was a right determination, that where everybody throw over hope and the Domini but little more than the half of his salary received, and yet themselves under the censure have laid.

Two ships from Amsterdam, viz. Berton and Smith, be yet expected, with the which we hope to receive some advice, otherwise must we request that the Honorable Classis send us over † Domini Samuel Verbryck appears from the records to have been the preacher located at Tappan at this time. He was an enthusiast on the subject of securing a College for the education of the Dutch ministers, and seemed to have devoted the most of his time for that end.

Yet this very zeal for a literary institution, so necessary for the ministry, offended many of his people, so that they refused to pay salary to him. He also opposed all forms of prayer, and the celebration of the festival days, which conduct was then considered a great innovation.

His efforts for a College were successful, as a charter was secured March 20, 1770, for what is now Rutgers, at New Brunswick.

writing, the cost what it will, that we next spring may meet, for the things here so possible to make straight, to the best of our present circumstances, and it should be very good. So the Honorable Classis that of Albany thereto also love up to arouse. Dominie Westerloo being thereto well inclined, though his consistory appear therein no mind to have.

Herewith must we now this end, in the hope and expectation that Jehovah God our strength, whose cause we intend to maintain to the suppression of all disorder, and maintenance of good order in the midst of us; and that the Honorable Classis, us the needful help not withhold, but aid us with all her power, and then see we nothing otherwise to expect of all troubles this day shall speedily in these an end take.

Signed by us, Right Honorable Sirs, Fathers and Brethren in Christ with the utmost humility and respect your Honors obedient Servants and Brothers, &c.

The translated paper No. 13, while it is indorsed, "The downfall of the Coetus to New York," that, strictly speaking was not so.

The copy not having the year on it, would lead one to suppose that the end of the troubles had been reached. The year was 1753. We have placed it last. It should have been between Nos. 2 and 3.

The actual downfall did not occur until the third Tuesday of October, 1771, when the different factions "got together"—Coetus, Conferentie, Classis and Neutral—and a plan arranged for union. This plan was first to be submitted to the Classis of Amsterdam for her approval. A second convention was called for June 16th, 1772, when the approval of Holland was received.

George Rapelye was chosen by the elders of Success to attend this last meeting. The following is a copy of the minutes, "the Dutch of it."

(The Indorsement.)

The downfall of the Coetus in New York.
To the Honorable Consistory of New York.

The Honorable Coetus has on proper deliberation, been fashioned according to our Low Dutch Reformed Constitution, and taking at most to heart, the especial welfare and advancement as well as the enlargement of her kingdom situated in this remote province.

For such a service to arrive at and practically to forward, and finding themselves by reasons convinced and in conscience necessitated, for to seek in a Classis to be formed. So to regarding the frequent fruitless and painful endeavors of the present Coetus, also in regard for the urgent reasons and necessity for a Classis.

In the mean while, the Coetus no satisfactory reason can give out of Ecclesiastical Regulations for their present undertaking. It being just now neither Consistorial, nor Classical nor Synodical assembly, as such, there is contempt for without, and liable to confusion from within.

That the Coetus has no power for the highest prosperity of the Churches to arrive at, to cause satisfaction to the Congregations of this place, can neither universal final utterance do, nor no candidate nor preacher make, besides the difficulty and length of the present proceeding, must the matter yet and again to one of the Classis of Amsterdam go, before anybody can come to the end, and then not yet (according to opposition), evidence the necessity for a Classis, whereby we the desires of most all the congregations shall attain, and their exemption from useless and great cost, to the sending over for youngsters for promotion, besides the loss of much time, and great danger for the subject, even as also the calling for those not being qualified to place, and thus to come before seeking promotion others of different persuasion from us, whereof already is an example with the High Dutchmen that among us could not by us be received, and with reason for more to fear forwards.

Thus should we the Classis be able and in condition, the complete business quickly to dispose of the Congregations with candidates and preachers provide, and thus we shall the essential happiness promote with a benefit to the Churches obtain.

With reasons thereof convincing, and desiring that object of the synod to help provide; and in accordance with what the Synod proposes for the same with her consent to ratify.

Accordingly were the Consistories and thereupon the Congregations on it kindly this agreed to and approved, and the same with their own hand to subscribed and bound themselves likewise thereunto to such a Classis about thereby to stand, and remain, and themselves to submit to the same orthodox utterance according to Ecclesiastical Rules, and that any of the on-coming ministers and consistories this same to do.

That the salutary intention, with Synod authority, a better service might obtain and her approbation may carry away.

All this done in our Colonial Assembly to New York the 10th of September.

Signed in virtue of all the names.

JO. RITSEMA.

P. t. Presus.

We have quoted very largely from "Corwin's Manual," and as we have brought the "Old People" through their Ecclesiastical warfare, we now turn to the Revolutionary War and quote further from the "Manual."

"But the colonial period was about to end. A dark war cloud was beginning to loom up ominously on the horizon. The 'Sons of Liberty' were busily at work. Two months before the battle of Bunker Hill, the Church appointed a day of humiliation and prayer in behalf of the evils which seemed to be threatening the land.

"During the mighty struggle the Reformed Dutch Church was in hearty sympathy with the cause of freedom. Her pulpits rang with stirring appeals, which roused the patriotic ardor and inspired the martial courage of the people."

"The scene of the war was chiefly on the territory of the Dutch Church, and not a few of her church buildings were destroyed, and their ministers were often driven from their homes. The Church memorialized the Legislature of New York in 1780, speaking of the JUST AND NECESSARY WAR. At its close, Domini Rubel was deposed for certain immoralities and for his Toryism."

RYNIER VAN NEST.

Was born Feb. 8, 1739 near North Branch, N. J. He was the son of Peter and Margaret (arienson) Van Nest. Licensed in 1773.

On Feb. 24, 1776, he married Catherine Hagar widow of the Revd. J. M. Goetschius of Schoharie.

The Queens County Churches, called him in 1773, but he declined. He preached in a number of places in the Wallkill Valley and while preaching in Schoharie, on March 7, 1785, a call was extended to him for the second time which he accepted. Jan. 8, 1797, he left, returned to Schoharie where he died, July 9, 1813.

Mr. Van Nest was somewhat fleshy, very neat in personal appearance and in penmanship, a good speaker in Dutch and popular in the churches, but could never succeed well in English, as about this time the language was in a state of transition from Dutch to English. He and his wife, on account of their genial disposition were both favorites with the young. But the times in which he lived and labored, during and following the Revolution, were very unpropitious to ministerial success. He and his people were devoted Whigs, and he gave much to the Continental Congress.

He was the son of Warmoldus Keÿpers.

B. Feb. 19, 1771, at Rhinebeck.

D. Oct. 4, 1850, in N. Y.

Licensed in 1793.

He was called as an assistant to Do. Van Nest at a salary of £120. Was ordained at Success, July 13, 1794, and preached i the four congregations until 1824.

In his extended field on Long Island, living at Jamaica, he set out from home with his sulky on Friday or Saturday, returning on Monday or Tuesday.

He availed himself of the hospitality of his people, and made pastoral visits. He was fond of his pipe, and told long stories, which were eagerly listened to by the children.

For three years the two pastors worked together alternating among the churches and giving a Sabbath service once in two weeks, to each congregation.

In 1797, Mr. Van Nest accepted a call to Schoharie and left Mr. Kuypers in sole charge.

As neither pastor nor churches took measure to call an associate minister, Classis at the beginning of this century summoned Mr. Kuypers, and an elder, from each church, to explain, why no one was called.

The explanation given, was that as the parsonage at Jamaica belonged to the four churches, they were unable to separate and form new combinations, until that was sold. The parsonage was sold in May, 1801 for £831 and the money equally divided among the four churches.

The churches of Jamaica and Newtown in the following year called the Rev. Jacob Schoonmaker as the pastor of the two churches only, while Oyster Bay and Success were still dependent on Mr. Kuypers, alone, and consequently as he continued to give half of his time to the other two churches, these two had the pastor only one Sabbath in four.

Here the history of this church and that of Jamaica and Newtown are separated.

For ten years matters continued in this way. In 1810, Classis again demanded an explanation from Oyster Bay and Success. Teunis Hoogland and Thomas Dodge appeared before Classis and stated that the churches were losing ground, and threw all the blame on the preacher.

A committee was appointed, who investigated and found that both pastor and people were to be censured. Classis further voted monthly supplies to the two churches, and again this church had preaching once in two weeks.

DAVID SCHUYLER BOGART.

He was born in New York, and licensed to preach in 1792.

Was a missionary along the Hudson. Presbyterian Church at South Hampton, L. I. Was called as collegiate pastor to Success and Oyster Bay. Was installed at Wolver Hollow on Sunday, Sept. 5th, 1813. In 1813 the congregation of Success divided and the northern portion organized a society at Manhasset, under Mr. Bogart. The old congregation of Success disbanded in 1830.

Mr. Bogart left in 1826, and died in 1839, age 80.

He and his daughter Elizabeth frequently contributed articles for the literary Journals of the city. She died May 11th, 1879, at the age of 84.

At Hempstead Harbor, on Monday evening, Dec. 2nd, 1816. Do. Cooper (Kuypers) married, Mons. Charles de Bost, late Adjutant General in the French Army under Bonapart, to the amiable Ann S. Bogart, daughter of the Rev. David S. Bogart.

Brethren :—

I feel disposed to purchase the place where I reside; and if I fail in obtaining it as my own, I must look out for another situation; I am willing to give you for your half of it, five hundred pounds. I know it cost you more, but when you recollect that it is not very saleable, and moreover that houses and lands have greatly decreased in price, that it would suit neither a Farmer nor a Mechanick, that the sole prospect of sale should it be left unoccupied would be, that some wealthy person might buy it for a retreat for a family during the warm season ; that for the want of attention on the part of its owners, it is annually going into a state of ruin, and will most likely ultimately be productive of much loss to them, that probably one thousand dollars at least would have to be expended on the property to make it decent and comfortable, that a new Barn with other accommodations are requisite ; that the house and fences around it and the Garden want repairing and painting ; that other considerable repairs are now necessary ; and that the obligation to defray the expense of necessary repairs, as well as to pay taxes, should they be imposed, rests under existing circumstances on you. And when, besides you take into view the risk attending the Buildings, together with the incompetent support which $350. per annum has hitherto afforded me, the sum I offer you will be, I presume, judged sufficient.

I wish your answer through individuals appointed to act in this business for the Congregation, the management of whose spiritual interests is committed to you.

I am with much affection, your's

DAVID S. BOGART.

P. S. I have addressed a similar letter to the Consistory of Oyster Bay ; and if you think proper, you can take measures to commune together on the subject of the proposition I have made to you.

The letter is addressed to :—

HENRY HEERMANCE.

One month after Mr. Bogart left Mr. Heermance was called (Sep. 10, 1826.)

He was born at Nassau in 1801, graduated from N. B. Seminary 1826 and began preaching in the two churches as an evangelist.

From a child he possessed a strong character, activity, self dependence, a spirit of inquiry and experiment, strong decision and energetic action.

He was a sort of "regulator" among the turbulent of his day, a hammer of the unruly ; and was looked up to by the weak and defenseless as a patron and shield.

He left June 3, 1827, Was stricken with apoplexy in the midst of his days and died in 1846.

He married May 9, 1832, Caroline E. Laing of New York daughter of Edgar. She died Jan. 26, 1887, age 77, in New York, buried at Kinderhook.

He greatly pleased the people and accepted a call. After a pastorate of less than a year, he suddenly and without a satisfactory reason, left his charge while a revival was in progress.

Yet it must be remembered that he setteled against his will, believing his work to be that of an evangelist. He certainly was very successful as the record of admissions to the church will show. The people were greatly grieved at his departure, and many years afterward the old people spoke of him with loving and affectionate tenderness.

MEMBERS RECEIVED BY DOMINIE HEERMANCE.

Nov. 17, 1826, Garret Bennet, Eliza Nostrand wife of Peter Luyster, Jr.

May 16, 1827. Jacob Maybee and Elizabeth Velser, his wife ; William Townsend Weeks and Mary Van Wicklen, his wife ; Stephen Remsen and Jane Van Wicklen, his wife ; Jörn Vanderbelt Hegeman and Catherine Remsen, his wife ; John Monfort

May 18, 1827. Maria Van Wicklen wife of Garret Bennet; Ann Duryea wife of John Remsen; Ida Rider wife of Garret Monfort; Anne Wicks wife of John Monfort.

JAMES OTTERSON.

He was born in New York in 1791. Was called to the two churches Dec. 29, 1827, was installed May 18, 1828, and left Nov. 13, 1834. He died, 1867.

He was an able expounder of the word. In the ecclesiastical assemblies of the church, he had few superiors.

Was of Scotch Ancestry, was spoken of as being a scholarly and polished gentleman.

The temporal affairs of the church appeared to succeed more than the spiritual. He was relieved of his charge at a special meeting of Classis Dec. 1st 1834. A new order of things temporal and spiritual takes effect about this time in the affairs of the Dutch Congregation of Oyster Bay. A Century, filled with events, with hardships, with wars, with troubles of many kinds, has passed away, and a new era has dawned for them.

With his removal the two churches Dec. 1, 1834, separated.

MEMBERS RECEIVED BY DOMINIE OTTERSON.

May 30, 1828. Peter Luister. By certificate, Mrs. Hannah Hoogland.

ROBERT QUINN.

He was the first minister called to the church after the separation.

He was born in 1798, and was a sailor in his younger days. Was converted at one of the Bethel Missions in New York. Graduated from the New Brunswick Seminary and was licensed to preach in 1833.

Delivered his first sermon at W. H., July 5, 1835, and was installed October 5, 1835. Was dismissed September 6, 1841.

Finally settled as Chaplain at the Sailors Snug Harbor on Staten Island, where he remained for many years.

Jan. 31st, 1863, after performing his duties as Chaplain, he was deliberately shot through the heart by Herman Ingalls, an old sailor, who, it is said, had revealed his past life crimes to his Chaplain, and now feared exposure.

Ingalls then immediately shot himself. He was much given to mutterings and solitary walking, and his companions thought he had been a pirate and was troubled with remorse.

Mr. Quinn married Mary Elizabeth Stoutenburgh, a daughter of William L. and Mary J. Dutton.

She was born 1802, died June 1, 1891.

Accord, Ulster Co., N. Y.

Apl. 17, 1899.

My dear Mr. S.

Yours of Apl. 6th is received and I enclose statistics as you desire. Yes, I remember you when a boy and, I think, a sister younger than yourself; also your father, mother, grandfather and grandmother Luyster. I wonder if your mother is living, if so please give her my kindest regards. Is your sister living?

In Oct. 1897, Mrs. McNair and myself drove to New Jersey, to N. Y. City, and out to Sea Cliff where my son, Wilmer, was summering with his family, but did not get into your neighborhood. I should have liked to spend more time thereabouts but could not.

My present wife is a cousin of Revd. Walter T. Scudder's father. Please remember me to any who may inquire about me.

Yours in Christian bonds,

J. L. McNair.

Domini McNair was followed by

JOHN A. DEBAUN.

The meeting to dissolve the pastoral relations with Mr. DeBaun was held Oct. 4, 1858. He died about a year after writing the following letter.

Fonda, N. Y.

April 8, 1899.

Mr. H. A. S.

My Dear Sir :

It is so long since we have seen or heard anything of our old Long Island friends, that your note of the 6th inst seemed almost like a message from another world.

I do wish I could see you,—what a pile of questions I would have ready for you.

I am just crawling out of a long seige of grip; am not able to go out, and handle a pen with much difficulty. My wife not very strong at the start, is worn out with her attentions to me, and has had to keep her bed almost altogether for the past two weeks, but our general health is and has long been excellent and we hope to be all right again in a week or two.

Is your mother still living? If so give her our love and say we often recall her and her kind aid before and at the time of our removal from our first house.

There are scores of people I would like to ask about, but dare not, not knowing how many of them have passed on before us.

With kindest regards to you and yours.

Yours very sincerely,

J. A. DeBaun.

JOHN C. LOWE.

He graduated at the N. B. Seminary in 1858.

The call to O. B. March 2, 1859, was his first.

He was unmarried.

His ministry appears to have pleased the congregation, for on his dismissal April 2, 1863 the following resolutions were moved by Elder James M. Montfort, and carried.

Whereas, our pastor has received a call to the Reformed Dutch Church of Rotterdam, and feeling it to be his duty to accept the same.

Therefore Resolved, 1st That we comply with his request.

Resolved 2nd. That while we do so, we must be permitted to express and record our sincere regret that a providence should occur to prompt the above action.

Resolved 3rd. That our pastor has our good wishes and our earnest sincere prayers that the blessing of the great head of the church should accompany him to his new field of labor and crown with abundant success his efforts to build up Zion. We bid him God speed in the master's work.

JEREMIAH SEARLE.

Graduated from the N. B. Seminary in 1858.

Was Chaplain of the 144th Regiment New York State Volunteers, 1862-3.

Was called to O. B. after April 2nd and before July 31st, 1863, when he was present at a meeting of Consistory.

He was the son of the Rev. Jeremiah Searle and Mary Tomb, and born at Coxsackie, N. Y. Married Margaretta F. daughter of Peter Conover and Susan L. Robinson. She was born in Brunswick. They had no issue.

He was dismissed April 24, 1866.

The resolution accepting his resignation says, "That with great reluctance and deep regret we accept."

JOHN H. SMOCK,

He was the next in order. Was a graduate from the New Brunswick Seminary in 1866.

Was called to Oyster Bay August 9, 1866. At a meeting of the Consistory held November 27, 1867, it was resolved that the Rev. John H. Smock and Daniel V. Weeks be appointed a committee to solicit subscriptions for building the Branch Church at Locust Valley. January 8, 1869, John B. Luyster, Daniel V. Weeks and Daniel V. Smith were constituted a Board of Trustees to receive and hold the title for the property of the Reformed Church of Locust Valley.

April 30, 1869, it was resolved, "That the Consistory approve of the project of building a Reformed Church at Jericho." August 26, 1870, the Consistory resolved, "That the Rev. John H. Smock, Elder John B. Luyster and Deacon Wm. McKay act as Trustees of the New Reformed Church Building in process of erection at Jericho." March 20, 1871, Mr. Smock was dismissed to accept a call at Readington, N. J.

MINOR SWICK.

May 6, 1871 the Consistory united in a call to the Rev. Minor Swick of Cato, N. Y.

During the pastorate of Mr. Swick the church building was repaired and changes made both inside and out. The expenses exceeded the amounts subscribed, about $1,000 and this amount was liquidated with the money received from the estate of Samuel Wanser, he having bequeathed it for that purpose.

Mr. Swick's annual reports were very full and covered the whole ground of church work.

He presented his resignation on February 2, 1877, which was accepted on February 8th.

JOHN A. DAVIS.

His call was dated December 2, 1877. Mr. Davis had been a missionary to China but returned on account of illness. His voyage to China began January 9, 1869. Was stationed at Amoy in 1869-70, returning in November 1870.

Graduated from New Brunswick Seminary 1868. He was the son of Peter Davis, and was born in Ulster County, October 28, 1839. Married August 5, 1868, Emma daughter of T. Sexton Wyckoff, born May 9, 1845. They had no issue.

He was an active worker for the Church and met with a deserved success. His resignation was accepted April 9, 1883. He was pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, Nyack, N. Y. where he died quite suddenly September 24, 1797.

During his pastorate the Church celebrated its 150th anniversary. A portion of his historical discourse, delivered on that occasion, follows.

"The relation of a pastor to his people has been likened to that of a father to his children, and of a husband to his wife, the minister being the husband of course, the church the wife. Viewed in the light of this relation our gathering to-day has a peculiar significance. It is not often that a wife on her 150th birthday has the privilege of looking into the faces of—of her nine living husbands and none of them, either very aged or feeble. Such is the position of this church to-day.

There are lands, where on some festive occasion a husband may gather all his wives around him in a reunion, but the lands are few, where the wife does this to her scattered husbands. When men have so many wives, we call it polygamy, when a woman has so many partners of her joys we may call it polyan-dry, though on this occasion, remembering the names of the majority of pastors here I suggest that it be called polyJohndry.

As the youngest and last chosen, it ill becomes me to say much in the presence of my predecessors, either of this church, as it is at present, or of those who preceeded me. But two things may be safely said. You are very often spoken of and almost invariably with kindly words, and pleasant memories, yet your excellencies, have not in my hearing, been contrasted at any time with my faults and failings,

I have heard of a strong minded woman, who had possessed more than the usual number of husbands, who, when any misunderstanding arose between her and her living liege lord, ordered him to the graveyard to whitewash the head boards of his predecessors.

This church has never imposed that task on me.

Brothers—former pastors, when this people welcomes you to day, they mean it.

It is a welcome of heart, more than of word and hand.

In the name of our people, for we will be pastors alike to-day,

I welcome you to the Old Church and charge of our love, and the people who though years of joy and sadness separated them from you, have ever kept your place sacred in their hearts."

Remembering the work of former pastors with this people the historian is constrained to say in the old Dutch motto of the church "Eendragt macht Magt" unity or pulling together as one makes strength. Whatever success the future contains for this church much of it will be due to the efficient and wise as well as in general the harmonious direction and training of former pastors.

To them belongs credit that will not nor can it be given, until Eternity reveals results, not only, but causes; nor shall praise be withheld from the people themselves. As it is dangerous for a man to praise his wife in company, lest she become too proud to notice him, a sentence must suffice.

In this congregation are people (may their kind become more and more numerous) who will bless any church or people, among whom their lot may be cast, and who will win and hold a pastor's heart, let come what may, names need not be given; you will find them in the alphabet.

Far be it from me to forget, that name, and might, that Spirit and love, that in and through all, has been restraining, guiding, controlling, strengthening, upholding and blessing this church during its 150 years of life. No, to the Triune God be all the praise.

As we think of the human agencies we say "eendraght macht Magt" but then we look up and say, "Jehovah Nissi." The Lord my Banner.

The Lord Jehovah gave the victory and to Him the praise is due.

The historian may be pardoned for suggesting two or three lessons from the history of the church,

With our modern wisdom, we ask why did the founders of this church establish it here instead of placing it where a village would grow up around it. This church was not begun to be a great centre, but a solitary Bethel where the pilgrim Jacobs might tarry and see Heaven open to them.

Many now in God's eternal Home doubtless look back upon this church and say, that was the gate of Heaven to me. The founders of this church meant it to give the gospel to their own souls and the souls of their posterity, and during the 150 years there have been in this church unbroken lines of the same name, the same family. Hegeman, Hoogland, Luyster, Monfort, Nosstrand, Remsen, Simonson, and Voorhees seem never to have failed.

They were among the founders of the church, and are among its active supporters and faithful members to-day.

But from this humble Country Church have gone forth men and women to bless humanity and sustain churches elsewhere. It has been a humble fountain stream, but it has made glad the city of our God.

It is not a grand history, there are not remarkable events in the record of this church, nevertheless it is the history of a people journeying toward God.

In the years to come, between the now and the forever, this may ever be known as the little unnoticed country church. So on yonder coast there stands an unpretending lighthouse, kept by humble men, sailors pass and repass, and forget the light as soon as left in the distance behind. But what if that light should go out? What if it had never been placed there? Who can tell the shipwrecks, who count the value of the property destroyed? Who number the lives lost on that reef or dashed out on yonder rock? Who can portray the sorrows in hundreds of homes, as friends waited there for those who never came?

As a lighthouse this church has stood to direct the life voyages, here on the way of prosperity and safety.

Who can tell how many fortunes would have been wasted, had not the church stood here? Who can tell how many hopes would have been destroyed, how many hearts broken, how many fathers and mothers bending in hopeless grief over their ruined offspring, had this church not been planted here? And though heaven contains but a few hundred souls, who by the light of this church have been directed to the port of safety can you estimate the value of this church?

The history has not been written, no mortal hand can pen it, nor human lips utter. But when we gather for the last, the eternal jubilee of Heaven, then the recording angel may read in the book of eternity the history and work of this church.

There are however two paragraphs in its history that we can outline now.

One reason given by the founders of this church, why it should be established here, was that the Dutch settlers were surrounded by free thinkers, who might lead their children astray.

One hundred and fifty years have passed and instead of one infant church, it has grown to nearly a score of churches, but where are the successors of the free thinkers that then seemed to far outnumber the professing Christians. They from a single handful. I have no unkind words for them, believing that they, with us, search after the truth.

The difference between us is in this, they are seeking the truth away from Jesus Christ, and we search for it in Him. They are yet prosecuting an earnest, but alas! a vain search, while we have found the truth, and on that these churches are built.

Differ though they do, in form and ceremony and in lesser doctrines, yet Baptist, Episcopalian, Methodist, Presbyterian all alike have the same Bible, trust in the same Saviour, own the same Heavenly Father and seek alike the same Home.

The old church looks upon them to-day as children.

Many of them have gone from her home, her bosom, to the homes of others and to-day the old mother reaches out her arms to them and says, bless you my children.

In whatever home you are, you have my love, my prayer.

Some day we will all unite in our one home, where we shall know as we are known.

After the release of Mr. Davis, the Consistory on Oct 10, 1883, united in again calling the Revd.

JOHN H. SMOCK.

He accepted the call and continued to be the pastor until Apl. 27. 1897, when at his own request he was relieved because of his failing health.

On June, 12, 1897, the church agreed to extend a call to who was about to graduate from the N. B. S. He was inducted in his office on July 14.

Mr. Scudder possessed the essential qualities for mission work; derived from a long line of missionaries. He was the son of John Scudder and Laura Sophia Weed, and was

B. Apl. 8, 1869, in Arcot, India.

M. Sep. 26, 1899 in Ansonia, Conn.

Ellen E. dau of Dana Bartholomew.

B. May 21, 1873, at Ansonia.

An opening soon presented an opportunity for work in the mission field and Mr. Scudder hastened to avail himself of it. His letter of resignation was as follows :

“Believing it to be the will of our Heavenly Father that I should give up my labors among you, so as to go to our Mission in India and there preach the Gospel to those who know him not, I do, with the sincerest regret and sorrow hereby present my resignation to the congregation of the Reformed Church of Oyster Bay ; to take place on and after the 15th day of Oct. 1899.

During my brief sojourn with you, I have grown strongly attached to you all, and it is with heartfelt sorrow that I have decided to take this step, but when the Lord directs me, I unquestionably must follow.

May he grant that in his wisdom, he will, in the near future lead a pastor to you, who by the proclamation of the Gospel and a godly life, will minister to all your needs and persuade many more to enter the Household of Faith.

There is but one regret I desire to give expression to, and that is with respect to those who have not as yet made the Lord their master.

Many of you have been halting between two opinions ; others have been labouring and praying for you, but as yet you have not confessed His name before your fellowmen.

The Consistory has expressed its approval that we should celebrate the Lord's Supper the last sabbath we are to be together ; will not many of you accept this opportunity to come forward, assisted with his strength and boldness, and receive Christ the Blessed Redeemer who gave himself for you ?

May such be His good pleasure and may our feelings of sorrow, prompted by the fact that our ways must part, be changed into that Heavenly joy over the fact that many a soul has been united to its Master and God.

Yours most sincerely and faithfully,

WALTER T. SCUDDER.

Brookville, Sep. 24, 1899.”

They had been in India but a short time when both of their fathers died.

The next call was extended Apl. 7, 1900, to the present incumbent

GUSTAVUS WATERMULDER.

1675, Oct. Mary Case was fined £5 for interrupting Mr. Leverich while preaching and saying to him: "Come down thou whited wall, thou that feedest thyself and starvest thy people." The constable led her out of the meeting.

A letter to Samuel C. Thorne,

From Adrian Luyster,

East Woods, Sept. 15th, 1823.

Respected Friend :

I received your letter dated 18th of 7th month, stating that I was often brought to your remembrance and that you was willing to write a few lines to me in order if possible to open my understanding—You put the question if ever the Scriptures directed any man to follow them or to follow Christ Jesus. I answer; the scriptures of truth direct us to follow Christ Jesus; let us then both by precept and example manifest to the world that we follow him and manifest our love to him by living in obedience to his divine commands. As to the new covenant which our Lord made with the house of Israel and the house of Judah; those were his chosen people and in all generations he has been pleased to manifest himself unto his own, as he doth not unto the world. Our Lord teaches his people by his spirit and in truth. God is a spirit and they that worship him must worship him in spirit and truth. We are taught by the sacred scriptures that we must try the spirits to see whether they be of God or not and a sufficient rule is laid down for us in his word. Ye are mine says Christ if ye do whatsoever I have commanded you. If ye love me keep my commandments. Now what are his commandments? Why he has commanded men everywhere to repent. Except ye repent ye shall all likewise perish. Repentance towards God and faith in the Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ are essentially necessary in order to our being saved. Christ's commands to his ministers were as follows. Go ye therefore and teach all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Ghost; teaching them to observe all things whatsoever he had commanded them; and lo, I am with you always even unto the end of the world. Behold the promise and the threatenings are these; he that believeth and is baptized shall be saved and he that believeth not shall be damned.

(Here follows thirteen pages of writing and he finally closes as follows.)

And I thank God for the preaching of the gospel, which has been accompanied by the salutary influences of the holy spirit to my soul, and for his revealed word which has been accompanied by the same spirit; the blessing always attends the use of the means when done in faith either for temporal or spiritual blessing as much as the Lord sees best.

I feel to regret, that my duty calls me to state that your unbelief of the truth, caused you to go to the house of God (where his people were assembled for divine worship to renew their covenant engagements with their God, by eating and drinking at his table in remembrance of Christ, according to his divine command) and in the time of divine services, with a faint and feeble voice, in order to interrupt, did cry out. "Come down thou deceiver." All this did not have the intended effect, as him in whom you trusted is held bound and can go no further than he is permitted. Therefore your help failed you in the trying hour.

I do heartily forgive you this, and pray to God for you, hoping for the future you will take heed to your ways and not trust such a spirit. I invite you to Christ, to him you may go and get your supply without money and without price. This from your friend and well wisher, Adrian Luister. To Samuel C. Thorne.

CEDAR SWAMP, MAY 2ND 1828.

The Consistory of both churches, met at Joseph Hegeman's to see about a paper the consistory of North Heampstead had in their possession. The paper was by both parties, agreed to be burnt.

CHRIST'S CHURCH.

Like a ship, see the church through the ocean she rolls ;
She's freighted with grace and well mann'd out with souls ;
Mid whirlwinds and tempests she sails through the world,
While storms of temptations against her are hurl'd.
She's bound from the world through the tempest she flies ;
She mounts o'er the billows, is bound for the skies ;
While Christ stands at helm, no danger she'll fear ;
Her captain and pilot knows which way to steer.
She stops not to anchor in harbors below,
But o'er life's rough billows her true course doth go
The highlands of Heaven she still keeps in view,
Intends there to anchor and there land her crew.
While hell and her legions around her doth roar,
Like the waves of the ocean which break on the shore ;
She runs her course onward nor heeds the alarm ;
With Christ in the vessel, she smiles at the storm.
The ebb tide of nature which feeds the Dead sea,
And the Gulf of Confusion together agree
To hinder her progress, her march to oppose,
She spreads forth her canvass and outsails her foes.
She's hated by worldlings, despised by fools,
Who sail the black sea till they shipwreck their souls.
She kindly invites them their course to bewail,
Yet tarries not for them, but spreads the more sail.
She's rapidly sailing with strong gales of Love.
And soon will strike soundings on fair coasts above ;
Make the highlands of Heaven and enter the road,
And anchor forever in the Kingdom of God.

He and his wife are buried at the Old Dutch Church in Fishkill Village. On his monument is inscribed:

"Ye pious view this humble shrine:
Here lies a friend of God and thine.
In age advanced as you may see
Near to the age of eighty-three;
In life his closet was his fare,
His house was known a house of prayer;
At Jesus' feet in humble strains
He rested and the promise claimed;
In private and in publick life
A friend to peace, a foe to strife."

JOHN HENRY BRINCKERHOFF, merchant at Ja., son of Abraham and Jane Elizabeth Wright, b. Nov. 24, 1829; d. Jan. 16, 1903; m., Jan. 16, 1853, Laura Edwards, b. Dec. 27, 1829, in Seneca Co., Ohio, d. Apl. 20, 1891; bd. at Ja. Living, July, 1902, at Ja., and to him the compiler is indebted for the record of the descendants of John and Rebecca.

"He was for thirteen years Supervisor of the Town of Jamaica—from 1874 to 1887—and was chairman of the Queens County Board in 1881. He was a commissioner of highways from 1869 to 1872, and justice of the peace from 1872 to 1874. In 1886 he was elected village trustee and served for four years. He was also a member of the Village Board of Education and treasurer of that body. At his death he was treasurer of the local board of the Jamaica State Normal School, and during his nine years' service as a member of that board—seven as secretary and two as treasurer—he performed a very valuable service, and one that contributed very greatly to the success of the institution. He looked after the affairs of the Normal School with as much care and attention as he devoted to his private business, and his associates say that his services, rendered free of all charge, were worth a salary of at least $1000 per year. The volume of the correspondence was very great.

He was one of the oldest directors of the Glen Cove Mutual Insurance Company, and trustee and treasurer of the Jamaica Savings Bank.

He was one of the commissioners of Queens County that had a part in framing the charter of Greater New York and in carrying out the plan, and performed valuable services. He was the last of the charter members of Jamaica Lodge No. 546, F. and A. M., and one of the oldest village firemen, having been for a half-century a member of the department. He was one of the organizers of the Queens County Non-Partisan Taxpayers' Association, and later of the Jamaica Citizens' League.

Mr. Brinckerhoff, when a lad but fifteen years of age, began his apprenticeship as engineer and machinist of the Long Island Railroad, and in two years' time was given charge of one of three or four locomotives owned by the company. In 1854 he went to Syracuse, where he worked as a machinist in the shops of the New York Central Railroad; and the next year was made superintendent of the construction and repair shops of the Indiana and Grand Rapids Railroad at Adrian, Mich. In 1857 he returned to Jamaica, where he engaged in the grocery business, and by industry and thrift acquired a competency. He was a strong supporter of all worthy public enterprises in his native town, and a faithful and conscientious public official. He left his various offices with a high record for honesty and integrity."

"Ex-Assemblyman John Cashow died at his home in Mill Neck. He was the oldest Freemason in Brooklyn, being a member of Hohenlinden Lodge No. 56, and of Nassau Chapter, R. A. M. He was born at Brookville, L. I., December 30, 1817, and attended the district school until nearly attaining his majority. He removed to Brooklyn in 1835, where he became prominently identified with politics.

"He was an alderman for five years, and was chairman of the committee which recommended the resolution providing for the removal of the remains of the martyrs of the British prison-ships to their last resting-place. He was appointed harbor master of the Port of New York by Governor John A. King, reappointed by Governor Edwin D. Morgan, and also by Governor Reuben E. Fenton.

"Mr. Cashow had acted with the Republican party until the campaign of 1872, when he abandoned that party and followed Horace Greeley and the liberal party. In 1880 he was chosen supervisor of the town of Oyster Bay, a position he held for three years. In 1877 he represented the First Assembly District of this county in the State Legislature.

"He was for many years connected with the Farragut Fire Insurance Company of Manhattan. Mr. Cashow was a volunteer fireman, the old Cashow Hose Company in Brooklyn being named after him, and with which company he was many years identified."

Old Island Landmarks

"SEA CLIFF, L. I., June 24, 1896.—The old Downing homestead, which is said to have been built over two hundred years ago, has lately changed hands. It has become the property of Charles Nostrand of Brooklyn. The house is badly dilapidated, and Mr. Nostrand, who intends to live in it in the future, will have it partly rebuilt, preserving as much of the old building as possible. The property is delightfully situated on Littleworth Lane, near the shore. Tradition says that the house was built almost two hundred and fifty years ago, but of this there is no authentic record, though a deed is still in existence showing a transfer of the house and land dated one hundred and forty years ago."

"BABYLON, Nov. 5, 1901.—Thomas J. Duryea, a well-known and respected resident of this section, died yesterday at the home of his son-in-law, Jesse S. Smith, on Lower Carll Avenue, from a complication of disorders, after a long and severe illness. The deceased was a native of Dix Hills, but the major portion of his life was spent in Islip, where he pursued the avocation of a carpenter and builder. For a time he conducted a farm north of Hauppauge. He removed to Amityville a decade or more ago and later came to Babylon, where he has since resided. He was a quiet man, of simple tastes and strict integrity."

Church Genealogy

THE CHURCH OF JESUS CHRIST OF LATTER-DAY SAINTS was organized on the 27th day of September, 1830, at Palmyra, New York, and has since that time been in the world, and is now the largest and most prosperous of any denomination in the world.

It is a church of peace, love, and unity, and is open to all who desire to join it.

It is a church of the living God, and is the only church in the world that has the power to confer the Holy Spirit upon its members.

His will:

"KNOW ALL MEN BY THESE PRESENTS, that I, PETER LUYSTER of the Township of Oysterbay, in Queens County on Nassau Island in the Province of New York, Yeoman, being this twenty-eighth day of April, in the year of our Lord Christ one thousand seven hundred and sixty-four far advanced in years, But my understanding sound and memory good and well knowing according to the course of nature, I must yeald unto death, am willing to set my house in order, before my final change doth come, do make and ordain this my last Will and Testament in the following manner: First I will my soul to God that gave it me in hopes of salvation through Jesus Christ my only Saviour and redeemer and my body I recommend to the earth to be buried in a Christian manner at the discretion of my executors hereinafter named and appointed. First I will order and direct my executors hereinafter named and appointed to fully pay all my just debts funeral charges and other expenses about my estate in some convenient time after my decease. Item, I will and bequeath unto my daughter Wincha Norstrandt the wife of Garret Norstrandt so much money with what she has already had as to make it up one hundred pounds. Besides her outfit in moveables. Item, I will unto my two grandchildren Abraham and Peter Monfort the sum of one hundred pounds including the money I lent their mother Ida and besides what she had of household goods. Item. I will unto my daughter Sarah Bennet the sum of one hundred pounds including the money I lent her and besides what she had of household goods. Item. I will and bequeath unto my daughter Yanichy Simonson the widow of Frederick Simonson, deceased, the sum of one hundred pounds current money including what money I lent unto her and besides the household goods I gave her; Item, I will and bequeath unto Alcha my daughter that lives with me the sum of One hundred pounds current money, including what money I lent her so that the whole be one hundred pounds. I also will unto her my daughter Alcha an outset of household goods equale in value to what one of my daughters has had that are married and removed from me. Item, I will unto my two sons Peter and Jacobus and to each of them two hundred pounds which I lent to them and is now in their hands. Item, I will and bequeath unto my son John Luyster the sum of two hundred pounds out of my estate for him to have and receive in one year after my decease, and my will is that what money my children are to receive out of my estate and above what they have in their hands shall be paid to them respectively at one year's time after my death. Item: I will, give and bequeath unto my son John Luyster and to his heirs and assigns all my houses, lands, plain lands and salt meadow which I am possessed of; always provided he perform fullfill and punctilily observe and pay and discharge all such legacies as I shall injoyne and impose upon him and his heirs unto my other children and to my two grand-children in the following manner, that is to say: I value my houses lands and meadows to be worth one thousand three hundred pounds and out of the same I will unto my said son John Luyster the one eighth of the said money or value theiroy in the land. I will the other seven-eighth parts of the money unto my children and my said grandsons that is to say to each of my children an equal eighth part, to my two grandsons Abraham and Peter Monfort the one eighth part to be equally divided between them and that my son John or his executors, heirs or administrators shall pay the said seven eighth part unto my said children and grandsons in six equal payments the first payment to begin two years after my decease and so the other payments to follow year after year until the whole is fully paid: And I do order and direct my son John Luyster to give bond immediately after my decease unto all my children respectively to pay each their respective legacy above given them in the same order of time as above limited: And to give bond also unto my two grandsons above named for their respective legacies according to the payments above express'd: And my will is further in case my son John should neglect omit or any ways refuse to give bond to pay the said legacies respectively before mentioned at the times above limited or should refuse to pay the money before or after he has given bonds or any part thereof, then I empower Jacobus Monfort of Great Neck in the Township of Hempstead and John Monfort of Wheatley to sell all my houses, lands and meadows, or either of them to any substantial purchaser and to give a good lawfull and authentic deed or deeds for the same in as full a manner as the law requires in such cases and to warrentize the same against my heirs and all persons claiming under me and after the lands and houses, meadows, &c. are sold and the money collected by the persons aforesaid I order them to pay the same to my said children and two grandsons in the same manner order and direction as above mentioned.

"Lastly I will all my personall estate besides what is above given away unto my seven children and to my two grandsons aforesaid in the same proportion as before mentioned. Lastly: I constitute, ordain my son John Luyster and my brother in law Jacobus Monfort and my son in law John Monfort all three to be my executors of this my last will and testament.

"In witness hereunto I have set to my hand and fixed my seal the day and year before written.

"Signed, sealed, published, pronounced and declared by the said Peter Luyster as and for his last Will and Testament in the presence of the subscribers which subscribed as witnesses in the presence of the testator. "PETER LUISTER (Seal)

"GLEN COVE INS. OFFICE,
"4th Mo. (April) 1856."

"Mr. Luyster, for more than thirteen years past, had been a member of the Reformed Dutch Church of Oyster Bay, L. I., and witnessed a good profession by a conscientious and Christian life. During the last three years he had suffered much from disease, but was able for the most part to attend regularly upon the ministrations of the sanctuary. The end was not expected so soon by his family or friends, though he himself had expressed the conviction that it was near. It came at last suddenly—suddenly to us, but, we trust, it found him not unprepared. Though it left no time for the expression of his faith and hope in the dying hour, he had previously declared his readiness to depart, his entire resignation to the will of the Master. We sympathize sincerely with the afflicted family, for we too have lost a father in the Church, a brother in Christ Jesus. Yet we mourn not as those who cannot be comforted, for he is not lost, he has only gone before.

"Naturally cheerful in his disposition, kind and associate, and dutiful as a son, he had secured the esteem and friendship of all who knew him, tenderly beloved by his parents, he was the object of their most ardent hopes, and fondly did they cherish the anticipations that he would long be spared to be a comfort to them in their declining years.

"But insatiable death, which respects not age nor person, had marked him for his victim, and quickly bore him to the lone and silent grave."

"On Aug. 24, 1895, the writer visited the old burying ground of the Luyster family at Bowery Bay Beach.

"When the burying place was first located, it was probably done by the emigrant Peter. A roller coaster was found in course of erection about fifty feet from the last resting-place of these old people, a road or pony track had been cut through it.

"It seems a pity that such an old 'landmark' should be obliterated, but the writer has since been informed that the stones have been all carted away; and to use an old-time expression, 'body and bones' have all been removed.

"Some of the 'carpenter's' descendants might like something to remember the place by, and the writer while there copied the names on all the monuments left at that time. An explanation as to their identity is inserted by the writer:

Mary Luyster, wife of Daniel Rapalje. She was the daughter of Cornelius and Sarah Catherine Nevius. Born Sep. 2, 1696. Died Sep. 30, 1732.

"Diana Luyster. She was the daughter of Captain Cornelius and Susannah Brinckerhoff. Born May 9, 1755. Died Dec. 6, 1778.

"Susannah Brinckerhoff, wife of Captain Cornelius Luyster, daughter of Derick Brinckerhoff. Born Feb. 3, 1717. Died Oct. 29, 1782.

"About 1765, Dutch colonists from New Jersey began to pour into York and Adams Counties in Penn. They organized the church at Conowago, about three miles south of Gettysburg.

"Among these were the Monfoorts and Cassats from Millstone, and the Bantas and Westervelts from Bergen Co., N. J.

"The church at Conowago consisted of about 150 families.

"About 1781 these colonists began a second hegira, and in 1793 almost the whole congregation had moved away.

"Attention is called to the first pamphlet of this History, where these Dutch people 'folded their tents like the Arabs and silently emigrated.'"

HANS JANSEN, from Noortstrant, emigrated to this country about 1639 with a family of children. June 25, 1639, Hans Jansen of Rotterdam gave a note to Cornelis Volckertsen for 32 Carolus guilders. If his first wife came with him, she probably died soon after, as he had a child baptized in the Dutch Church in N. Y., Dec. 8, 1641, and the mother was not present. Hans Janszen Van Noortstrant married, Nov. 29, 1652, Janneken Gerrits Van Loon. Recorded with the record of marriage is this: "Op't Sandt in de Mayerje Van de Bosch" ("Province of the Woods"). The witnesses to the above baptism were: Laurens Pietersze Noorman, Janneken Molyn, Stjyntje Jans. He was called sometimes "Hans Jansen" and at other times "Hans Hansen." Hans Jansen would seem to be his correct name, as that is the name attached to his will. From the record he seems to have brought one daughter with him, for on May 23, 1644, Hans Jansen, father and guardian of Marritje Hans, his daughter, acknowledges to have bound his above named daughter to Philip Garritsen, tavern-keeper, for the term of three consecutive years, beginning on New Years', 1645, ending on New Year's, 1648, to serve in the family and to be provided and cared for as his own child, and to be taught sewing.

July 22, 1647. "Barent Jansen from Ocholm aged about 36 years and Hans Jansen from Noordstrant testefy and declair that it is true, that they in the year 1643 at the beginning of the war, had asked Cornelis Melyns consent to take off from Long Island, maize belonging to the Indians. Thereupon, Melyn said, if you will do so ye may do so, but charged them not to take away any maize if Indians were there. They the affliants, with some soldiers, sailed across, observed Indians and did not take any maize themselves, but think the soldiers took a small pouch of it in their canoe."

Oct. 24, 1663. He was a witness at the marriage of his son Symon in Brooklyn.

In 1675 and 1676 he was taxed on 17 morgen of land at Amsfortt (Flatlands). Name, Hans Janssen. In 1687 he took the oath of allegiance in Flatlands and as having been 47 years in this country.

Oct. 18, 1690, Peter, Gerrit, and Jan Hansen were required to show cause for selling the estate of Hans Hansen deceased, without administering thereon.

Jan. 19, 1690/91. "Whereas, Hans Hansen late of Amersfoort in Kings Co., decs^d had in his life time, goods and chattles, and Capt. Jan Hansen his eldest son desires Letters of Administration, They are granted."

THE WILL.

"In the name of Jesus Christ, the 20th day of August 1679, appeared before me, Clerk of Amesfort, (admitted by ye right honorable General Sir Edmund Andros in ye behalf of his Royal Highness James Duke of York Governor General of all his territories in America, and elected by the town,) in ye presence of the undermentioned witnesses, Hans Janssen from Noortstrant in Holsteyn, being sound in body but uncertain of his departing day, therefore is willing to dispose of some part of his estate and his will and desire is that his two sons Gerret Hanssen and Peter Hanssen shall have first and before out of ye estate after his decease, the land lying in ye New Lots with a meadow lot lying in ye flats against ye small kill to Canarse. with the two horse wagon plows and harrow and one bed, that is to say whereupon they sleep, with so much ticking to a new bed, with condition that the said two brothers shall render to their youngest brother Jan Hanssen a good suit of clothes from top to toe, likewise is ye testators last will that his youngest son shall have his bedstead with hangings, bed blankets pillows, sheets as it is herein mentioned without any pretense of any of ye other heirs of what that is herein expressed.

"Further it is his will that ye children gatte (begot.) by his his last wife shall have before out all ye household stuff (except what herein is stated) to be equally divided, likewise the two sons shall have before out, one meadow lot upon Hoggs Neck No, 6. and ye youngest son three hundred Guilders in wheat or wampum with a pinke (heifer) with the increase, also his son Volkert shall have two cows for a remembrance of his mother, and said Garret and Peter shall also each have a pair of cows, and the house and land at present possessed by ye testator and used by him shall be kept in use by Garret, Pieter and Jan Hansen, one year after ye year wherein ye testator shall come to die and Gerrit and Peter shall take truly thereout their chist and cloathes. and ye cubbord with clothing belonging to Jan Hanssen shall be for him all the premises.

"Ye testator declared this to be his last Will, well premeditated. and therefore to ye true intention subscribed ye date as above

"This .H. is the mark of

"HANS JOHNSON.

"Witnesses hereunto required,

(Hans John's son, the translation of Hans Jansen.)

"HENDRICK ASSUERUS.

"JACOB STRYCKER.

"ROELOFF MARTENS, Clerk in this.

"Recorded. Being the original Will in Dutch after the same was proved before the Court of Sessions held in Kings Co. Apl. 1 1690 by order of the said Court.

"Per me J. VANDEWATER. Register."

NOTE.—The translation of the will, to the mind (a Dutch mind) of the compiler, was a miserable failure. The recorded translation is filed in Kings Co., L. 1, F., 13, of deeds.

"HUNTINGTON, L. I.,

"Sep. 9th, 1901.

"MY DEAR FRIEND,—My thoughts come after. I knew that my grandfather Nostran had a sister who married a Baylis of Jamaica (I think James Baylis). This same Baylis was a brother of my grandfather, Oliver Baylis. This daughter of Jacobus and sister of my grandfather, James Nostran, had children. David Brainerd Baylis, a life-long officer in the South Brooklyn Savings Bank, was one of her sons. David Brainerd Baylis had only one child (a son); his name is Charles Smith Baylis. Some years ago he ran the store of Frothingham & Baylis in N. Y. City. Brainerd lived to be about 90 years old.

"I do not know whether Chas. is dead or alive. The family lived in Henry St., Brooklyn, a good many years.

"So you see my grandfather Nostran's sister married my grandfather Baylis' brother.

"Yours with much respect,

"HIRAM V. BAYLIS.

Issue:

No trace.

From Bergen's Early Settlers:

Aug. 3, 1639. Gov. Kieft granted 100 morgens of land on the west end of L. I., lying within the present bounds of N. U. and Gravesend to Anthony Jansen, a Turk. The patent was dated May 27, 1643.

Feb. 9, 1660. Anthony sold his patent to Nicholas Stillwell. up to this time the property was called the "Turk's plantation."

Feb. 28, 1664. Nicholas sold the patent to François de Bruynne, after whom it was called "Bruynnsburg."

June 4, 1665. Francois sold a part to Jan Janse Ver Ryne.

Dec. 10, 1678, he sold the remainder to Barent Joosten and Jan Hansen of Bushwick.

On page 55, Bergen says:

"Jan Hansen, Bruyenburgh, emigrated in 1639 and took the oath of allegiance in Bushwick in 1687. Probably this is Jan Hansen (Van Noortstrand), an owner of Buyennesberg, hence the name."

By the compiler:

This Jan Hansen is claimed by Bergen to have been a son of Hans Jansen from Noordstrant. This Jan Hansen sold his $\frac{1}{2}$ of the N. U. purchase, June 1, 1696. The oldest son of Hans Jansen (Jan Hansen) was dead Dec. 13, 1692, as per the affidavit of his half-brother, Garret Hansen.

Jan Hansen of Bushwick and Bruynnsburg would seem to have not been a Noordstrand at all, but rather a son of Hans Hansen Bergen of Bushwick (see Tunis Guysbert Bogaert).

JAN HANSEN, youngest son of Hans Jansen and Janneken Gerrits Van Loon, m. Willemetje Van Boxum. He was the younger brother of Garret and Peter, as mentioned in his father's will. Is said by Bergen to have settled in Hackensack, N. J.

Sep. 7, 1814, a. 79. 11. 26 (Bible record from Henry L. Nostrand of Ja.). Apl. 8, 1768, he united with his brothers in the deed to Charles Duryea of O. B.

1782. On New Year's night some robbers knocked at the door of John Skidmore, Fosters meadow, and asked for help, pretending their carriage was broken down. He could not call his negro Jack, for he was out, "keeping New Year's."

John Nostrand, passing by at the time in his sleigh, noticed a man in the door, supposed to be one John Place, a shoemaker, who having seen some papers at Skidmore's the day before, thought they must be deeds for the place that Skidmore was about selling, and that he must have the purchase money by him. But he had not.

They, however, carried off $40 in cash, some clothing, and all his linen, so that none was left for a winding sheet that was soon after needed. The things were hid in Clement's barn. Skidmore used to keep his money hid under the tow of the nest of a setting hen over which a basket was turned. Three broods were hatched while the money was thus concealed under her. The robbers crippled the old couple badly. They cut the man and bruised the wife, thinking she would tell where the money was.

Their granddaughter Phebe, aged eleven, crawled under the bed, behind a candle box. They hauled out the box, but did not discover her.

A child through fright, crept between the feather beds.

"He died at his home at Mills Pond. His parents lived to celebrate their sixty-ninth wedding day. At the age of 20 he was married to Miss Madelane Nostrand, who survives him. Since 1852 he had lived at his late home, a 300 acre farm of unusual fertility, where much blooded stock has been raised. Mr. Powell was a prominent member and a trustee of Stony Brook M. E. Church for the past forty-five years. For a number of years served as assessor of the Town of Smithtown. Up to the week prior to his death, Mr. Powell was possessed of wonderful vigor and agility, mental and physical, for a nonogenarian, and was out husking corn and doing other farm work last Wednesday.

"Beside the widow, seven children are living, all of whom occupy prominent social and business positions. They are Samuel J. Powell of Port Jefferson; Mrs. W. F. Youngs of 153 Rodney Street, Brooklyn; Mrs. Joshua W. Powell of Brooklyn and Hollis, L. I.; George N. Powell of St. James; William H. Powell of Minnesota; Benjamin F. Powell of Stony Brook; and Mrs. Henry W. Wells of Rowayton, Conn."

LAWRENCE PROUDFOOT, m. Louisa R. McCready; he was a doctor in Jericho.

"The undersigned members of the Consistory of the Reformed Dutch Church of Wolver Hollow do hereby Certify to all persons desiring an explanation of their proceedings and decision in the case of Dr. Proudfoot, that it was far from their intention to establish the principle of encouragement, to the labours of a Missionary within the bounds of this congregation, or thereby to express their approval of the conduct of any person who should encourage or influence any of its members to attend the services of any Minister whose labours have a tendency to injure the interests of this Church; and they sincerely hope that this declaration of their sentiments, will be the means of harmonizing the feelings, and uniting the efforts of all the friends of this Society in supporting the cause of our great Redeemer.

GILBERT RIDER, son of John and Antye Van Nostrand, bp. in P. C., Ja.; m. Cornelia Creed.

"Flushing, L. I., October 8, 1901.—Gilbert Rider died yesterday at the home of his granddaughter, Mrs. H. A. Hendrickson, 110 Madison Avenue, at the ripe old age of 97 years. Death was due to the infirmities incident to old age.

"Mr. Rider was Flushing's oldest resident. He was born in 1805, in Jamaica South. His ancestors were Holland Dutch. His father, who, in 1819, sold his farm on the Rockaway road, lived to be 80 years old, and at his death the farm fell into Mr. Rider's hands. The latter's wife, Miss Cornelia Creed, who died in 1869, came from an old Long Island family, her ancestors originally owning all that section which now embraces Queens, Hollis, and Creedmoor, and the latter place was named in honor of the Creed family.

"Mr. Rider's memory was good, his recollection extending over nearly the entire century. He remembered incidents of the War of 1812, recalled the Mexican War, the Civil War, and the Spanish-American War clearly. Mr. Rider was for many years a trustee of the public school at Queens, and was a member of the Presbyterian Church at Jamaica from boyhood, and was for many years a deacon there.

"Mrs. Hendrickson, at whose home Mr. Rider died, is the only surviving grandchild. Six great-grandchildren survive also."

In the Dutch Bible of his, the months were written as to their significance, and in all the Bible records the compiler has seen, the months were never so written except in this case. They are here given:

		Translation.
January.	Louwmaand.	Bellowing.
February.	—	—
March.	Leutemaand.	Lingering.
April.	Grasmaand.	Grass.
May.	Bloeimaand.	Blowing.
June.	Zomermaand.	Summer.
July.	Hooimaand.	Hay.
August.	Oogstmaand.	Harvest.
September.	Herfstmaand.	Autumn.
October.	Wynmaand.	Wine.
November.	Slagtmaand.	Meat.
December.	Wyntermaand.	Winter.

January, or Louwmaand, refers to the bellowing of the wind or the lowing of cattle.

October was written as Hara or hog month, the time when it was customary for the farmers to kill the hogs.

November, or Slagtmaand, was the time of killing beef cattle.

MARTIN SCHENCK, of Flds., son of Roelof and Neeltje Gerretse Van Couwenhoven, b. Jan. 2, 1661; d. May 2, 1727; m. (1st), June 13, 1686, Susanna Brinckerhoff, dau. of Abram and Aeltie Strycker, b. about 1663; m. (2^d), Apl. 1, 1693, Elizabeth Minnes, dau. of Minne Johannes and Rensje Feddans (who emigrated with her father in Sep., 1663); Bergen's Early Settlers, page 380, makes her a dau. of Minne Voorhies, but he was not m. until 1717—see Catlynte Nostrand; m. (3^d), June 24, 1704, Jannetje Voorhies, dau. of Lucas and Catalina Hansen Nostrand, b. Oct. 8, 1681; bp. Dec. 25, 1681; d. Apl. 17, 1758. The first two children by the second wife are named after his father and mother, and the next two after her father and mother.

The name Rensje is peculiar and it has been changed many times. The later generations call it Ranche. If the reader cares to trace out the name through the Nostrand, Luyster, Voorhies, and Bogart families, it will be found to run back to "Rensje Feddans," the wife of Minne Johannes. They emigrated from Holland in Sep., 1663. She was the grandmother of Daniel Rapalye's wife, Rensie Schenck.

* "HEMPSTEAD, Sep. 2, 1903.—Once wealthy and a leader of society at Hempstead and throughout this section of Long Island, Miss Susan Schenck, who in her girlhood was noted for her beauty, died yesterday in the King's Park Insane Asylum, penniless and alone.

"A large portion of the Meadow Brook section was once owned by Miss Schenck and her brother, Selah Schenck. Through a series of misfortunes the property passed from their hands, and, with only a few thousand dollars left, the aged couple—Susan, seventy-one, and Selah, eighty-four—managed by great economy to live for years at their homestead, on the corner of Franklin and Fulton streets, Hempstead.

"Their slender means were exhausted a few weeks since, and the thought of being penniless in her infirmity so preyed upon the woman's mind that she lost her reason. She was committed to the King's Park Asylum for the Insane.

"Her brother was committed to the Home for Aged Men at St. John's-land, L. I."

Lucas Voorhies m. for his second wife, Jan. 26, 1689, Jannetje Minnes, dau. of Minne Johannes and Rensje Feddans, and they had two children, named after her father and mother, Minne and Rensie. Martin Schenck's second wife was a sister to Jannetye, the second wife of Lucas Voorhies. The Bible with the record of the family of Martin Schenck, from which this has been compiled, is now in possession of Mrs. Martin Van Buren Schenck of Mt.

JOOST SCHOMP, m. Kniertje (Cuniarte) Monfoort, dau. of Peter and Margaret Haff, bp. May 3, 1719, at Ja.; she d. before May 31, 1771. She was received as a member on confession in 1743, and Joost in 1751 by certificate, at Redding or Readington.

The Rev. Oscar M. Voorhees, of Three Bridges, N. J., sent to me the original of Kniertje Durje's will for translation.

A great many years ago Peter Monfoort and his wife, Margaret Haff, sold land in Wolf Hollow (now Brookville) and settled in Hunterdon County, N. J. Their daughter Kniertje married Joost Shomp (Schomp).

It seems strange that a paper of this kind should have been preserved for 174 years. It is curious enough to delight the heart of any one interested in family history.

"On this day, the 4th of May, 1728, I, Kniertje Durje, widow of Joost Durje, realizing the certainty of death and the uncertain time and hour; from duty belonging to a healthy life by God liberally bestowed, wills to dispose of her worldly estate.

"In the first place and before all committing her needy soul to the Lord's merciful protection through the blood of the Bridegroom Jesus Christ, and her body to the earth wherefrom the same to come is, and expecting the blessed resurrection to eternal life.

"Firstly: Because Femmetje no setting out has had, shall have the cow with her belongings, the bed, bolster, two pillows and hangings and one new white coverlet, two sheets, and one pair of pillow cases, the great Bible and there above in money beforehand five pounds, with the parlour suit, the silk plaited apron, this make I to my eldest daughter, Femmetje.

"Joost Shomp, his daughter Kniertje, she must the silver cup have and two pounds in money.

"Femmetje's son Nicholas must have in money three pounds because Kniertje godmother of him is.

"Jocham P. Tehunn's daughter Catryna she must also three pounds have, because I godmother of her be.

"Further, so shall all the children equally share, to wit, the three feather beds.

"Also was this forgot, that Joost Shomp, his wife Margrietje, she shall the looking-glass have and the copper pail and the Church Book with the silver clasps.

"My Will and Testament and all where-unto and wherein all solemnly order to be observed and hold it after for legal and binding.

"Done at Boswyk the date as above.

"[Actum, Boswyk, Den datum ut Supra.]

"[Note.—This is added.] Jochom Ver Tehunn's femmetje's Catrina, one silver spoon as a gift.

"[Signed] KNIERTJE DURJE,

"of JOSE DURJE.

"Signed, sealed and up to be delivered in the presence of us,

"JOHANNES SCHENK,

"MADDALENA SCHENK."

Of the many Duryea records which I have gone over, I have never seen where a Joost Durje had a wife named Kniertje. She being of Boswyk, and the date, 1728, would indicate that she was the second wife of Joost the emigrant.

The first reference regarding the name was found in O'Callaghan's History of New Amsterdam. Among the papers of the Patroon Van Rensselaer was one containing the names of the settlers in Rensselaerwyck from 1630 to 1646:

1638. Jacob Jansen Nostrandt.

1646. JACOB JANSEN from Stoutenburgh.

Very little is recorded of the man from Stoutenburgh.

Marritje, dau. of Hans Jansen Noordstrandt, married, about 1650, Juriaen Westphael, and settled at Kingston, where they had a number of children baptized. He died about 1667. She then married Jacob Jansen (sup.) Stoutenburgh.

Aug. 18, 1663. The Council of War at Wyldwick concluded to send a party three miles from Wyldwick to some plantations of Esopus Indians, planted with maize; whereupon Ensign Niessen was sent thither with fifty-five men. They went forth from Wyldwick about ten o'clock at night, and had a Dutchman named Jacob Jansen Stoutenborgh for a guide.

What relation he bore to Peter, whose record we have, is not known.

Aug. 20, 1727, and July 27, 1729, was elected deacon. Aug. 21, 1731, retired as deacon. Aug. 16, 1732, was elected elder. Nov. 20, 1736, was retired. Aug. 9, 1738, was again elected elder. Apl. 10, 1739, he and his wife were witnesses at a bp. Sep. 25, 1742, was again retired. Jan. 10, 1748, was elected elder in 1st Dutch Church at Po'keepsie. His will dated Jan. 24, 1770; proved Jan. 5, 1773 (R. L. 28, F., 479, N. Y.); and here follows:

"In the name of God, Amen. I Jacobus Stoutenburgh of Charlotte Precinct in Dutchess County, In the Province of New York, Esquire, being in perfect health of Body and of Sound mind memory and understanding, Considering the frailty of human nature, that it is appointed for all men once to die, do make and ordain this my Last Will and Testament in manner and form following.

"First and principally I recomend my soul to Almighty God my Creator, hoping and trusting for Salvation through the Lord Jesus Christ my Redeemer, and my Body to the earth to be buried in a Christian like and decent manner at the Discretion of my Executors and as touching such worldly Estate wherewith God hath pleased to bless me, I dispose of the same in the following manner.

"Imprimis. I will that all my just Debts and funeral charges shall be fully paid and satisfied within some convenient time after my decease.

"Item. I give unto my Eldest son Tobias besides what I have already given him by Deed the sum of twenty five pounds and also a Silver Tea Pot for and during his and his Wife's Life and after their Decease to their daughter Margaret.

"Item. I give devise and bequeath all the rest of my Estate both real and personal unto my seven children namely, William, Jacobus, John, Peter, Luke, Annatje and Margaret to be equally divided among them after my wifes decease, to them their several and respective heirs and assigns forever, and in case any of said last mentioned seven children should happen to die before any conveyance made of his, her or their Parts without lawful Issue or last Will and Testament, such child or childrens share shall be equally divided among the Survivors of them share and share alike.

"Item for as much as I have given unto my daughter Annatje a Silver Tea Pot of the value of fourteen Pounds I also give unto my daughter Margaret a Silver Tea Pot which is now in my family and I do will and order a Tea Pot of the value of fourteen Pounds to each of my sons, William, Jacobus, John, Peter and Luke and it is my desire that if any of the last named seven children should die leaving a daughter named Margaret, such Tea Pot to descend to such daughter.

"Item. I give and devise unto my Sons John and Luke in fee simple a certain Creek called by the Indians Agwasing with the falls of water therein from the Bounds of my son William's farm down to the Bounds of my son Tobias his Farm with Liberty to erect any Mill or Mills thereon and as my son Luke owns the Land adjoining to the Creek my Will is that he convey a Moiety of one acre of Land to his Brother John his heirs or assigns wherever there may be a conveniency for erecting a Mill or Mills, which if he my said son Luke his heirs or assigns shall refuse to do, this Bequest of the Creek to him or them shall be Void.

"Item. I give and devise unto my son William his heirs and assigns all that part of the above mentioned Creek as bounds on or Joins his farm, which I have given him a Deed of.

"Item. I give and devise and my Will is that my beloved wife Margaret shall have, possess and enjoy for and during her natural life all my Estate real and personal, Rents of Tenants and of whatever kind or nature whatsoever or wheresoever.

"Lastly I appoint my Sons William John and Luke to be Executors of this my last Will and Testament hereby revoking all former Will or Wills by me made, acknowledging this and no other to be my Last Will and Testament.

"In Testimony whereof I the said Jacobus Stoutenburgh have to this my Last Will and Testament set my hand and affixed my seal this twenty fourth day of January in the year of our Lord 1770.

Dec. 21, 1789. Minutes of the Dutch Church at Hyde Park:

"Resolved, that the Trustees (if they can) get a conveyance of the ground for said building from the heirs of Luke Stoutenburgh, Esq., deceased."

He received from his father, that portion of the estate lying between lands given to Tobias and William, the creek bounding on the north, while on the south were lands of Jacobus, Jr.

An abstract of title says this deed of gift was made in 1738 and confirmed by will. In 1791 this farm was divided by commissioners into 42 lots and apportioned among his heirs; two lots comprising the mansion and its environments being left undivided. It was this division and the establishment of a church that was the foundation of the village of Hyde Park.

Luke lived in the stone house built by him or his father on the brow of the hill at the end of an avenue of cherry trees leading from the post road, now known as Market St.

It was visible from the river and in 1777 the British vessel passing to burn Kingston, fired at the house. The house was taken down in 1872 to straighten the road. (See Smith's History of Dutchess Co., page 220.)

of Barneveld, William, was called Seignior of Stoutenburg), obit. Mch. 9, 1698/99, a. 86; m., July 25, 1649, in N. A., Afegy Van Tienhoven. Apl. 30, 1659, Eva Stoutenburgh was a witness at a bp. in N. A. She would seem to have been related to Pieter.

Apl. 17, 1652. Was granted the small Burgher Right.

1655. Was taxed to defray the debt for constructing the city defenses.

May 31. Suit was brought against him and six others by Thomas Hall.

June 7. Was a witness in a suit against Jacob Willimsen.

Oct. 15. Was taxed 12 florins for repairing the walls of the fort.

Dec. 18, 1656. Suit was brought against Jan Verbrugge and another in a dog and sheep case. Peter was a witness.

Jan. 22, 1657, the dog and sheep case was decided.

May 30. Pieter Stoutenburgh, Olof Stephenszen Van Courtlt, Tryntie Rodenburg, and Marritie Varrenvanger were witnesses at the baptism of Jannetÿe, dau. of Cornelis Van Tienhoven, Fiscael, and Rachel Vinge.

Jan. 7, 1658. He exhibited some zewant received from Frerick Lubbesen, it not being merchantable. Requests the decision of the court. It was referred to arbitrators.

Jan. 25, 1661, was a referee in a disputed land transaction.

Sep. 11, 1663. Jan Vinge and Peter Stoutenburgh, as guardians and curators of the estate of Rachel Van Tienhoven, bring suit against Joannes Nevius, vendue master.

Mch. 18, 1664. Jan Vinge, Jacques Cosseau, and Peter Stoutenburgh, curators of the estate of Rachel Van Tienhoven, apply to the court for the appointment of arbitrators of a claim against Cornelis Van Tienhoven.

Oct. 12. He appears as a member of the Dutch Church.

Jan. 17, 1665. Seltje Jans against the curators. Wanted to be released from the lease of a house belonging to Rachel Van Tienhoven. The same day the curators request an attachment against the goods of Seltje in the house. It was granted.

Jan. 31. The matter came up on an application to declare the attachment valid. Same granted.

Mch. 2. Mattheus de Vas against Jan Vinge and Pieter

Stoutenburgh, as curators of the estate left by Rachel Van Tienhoven, decs^d. Plaintiff demands payment of the sum of sixty-five guilders eleven stivers in beavers, balance as per account, with costs. Defts. acknowledge the debt and request account and payment from the vendue master, Joannes Nevius, of the goods sold belonging to Rachel Van Tienhoven, decs^d; the vendue master not having paid for the goods sold, because some one else owed him.

Mch. 14. The Hon. Petrus Stuyvesant brought suit against the curators for a debt incurred by Rachel's husband (Cornelis Van Tienhoven) on Jan. 18, 1650.

Apl. 19. Pieter was living in Broadway above Wall St. ("Buÿten de Lant Poort,"—outside the land gate).

Governor Nicolls ordered one hundred soldiers to be furnished quarters in the city, and Pieter was assessed 1 florin.

June 6, 1666. He was appointed arbitrator in a disputed land boundary.

Mch. 5, 1667. Arbitrators were appointed to settle a dispute between the guardians (Pieter Stoutenburgh and Jan Vinge) of the children of Rachel Van Tienhoven and Mettie Wessels.

On this same court day Pieter was assessed to pay weekly 15 stivers for the support of the minister.

June 8. Pieter was one of a jury in a disputed land title case; the deed to the land being dated July 4, 1645.

Sep. 24, and Oct. 15. Peter was again in trouble over the estate of Rachel Van Tienhoven.

Nov. 10, 1668. He was one of the guardians of the children of Kleÿn Klaessens.

Nov. 24, 1668. He was again on the jury.

July 12, 1670. Mr. Petrus Stuyvesant petitioned the court "that he is abridged in the execution of some of his lands from the public fence." On Feb. 28, 1670/71, the court appointed Pieter, Jan Vigne, and Jacob Kipp to inspect the matter and to decide thereon.

Aug. 16, 1673. Pieter was nominated for the office of Schepen.

Oct. 17, 1673. The Court of Burgomasters and Schepens published from the City Hall the following placard:

"Whereas the Fortress Willem Hendrick and City N. Orange, situate on the Island of Manhattan is much incumbered and obstructed by the houses, gardens and orchards, which lie so close under its walls and bulwarks, that it is impossible when requisite properly to defend it against its enemies, unless some at least of said houses, gardens and orchards be demolished or removed."

Among those mentioned was the house, garden, and orchard of Pieter Stoutenburgh (see Court Minutes of New Amsterdam, vol. 7, page 12).

Nov. 10, 1676. An assessment and tax.

"To Mr. Peter Stoutenburgh Trea' of ye City, and to his Ma^{ties} Constables within this city, who are hereby required to be Aydinge and Assistinge in ye Executinge of the same.

"Nathaniel Kalsey Suydam died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Pitt, on 99th Street, Fort Hamilton. He was born at Centerport, L. I., nearly ninety years ago, and his father was the late John C. Suydam, a veteran of the war of 1812. For over forty years the deceased lived in Babylon, where he followed his calling as a farmer. Twenty-five years ago, when his wife died, he retired from active business, and nine years later he went to live with his daughter. Mr. Suydam was a wonderfully active man for his years. Until the day before his death he had not experienced a day's sickness in forty years. Yesterday morning he had a stroke of paralysis while sitting in his chair, and owing to his advanced years could not withstand it. He leaves two daughters, three sons, number of grandchildren, and four great-grandchildren. To-morrow morning the remains will be taken to Babylon, his old home, where the funeral services will take place."

Samuel M., who was born in Glen Cove on May 31, 1819. On November 2, 1851, he married Hannah Elizabeth Willis, eldest daughter of Jacob B. and Phebe Hewlett of Cedar Swamp, now known as Glen Head. Cedar Swamp is the source of the stream of water which flows from that locality through a winding valley of picturesque beauty to the Glen Cove lakes, and thence into the waters of Hempstead Harbor.

Mr. Titus had been a director in the Glen Cove Mutual Insurance Company for forty-four years. He had been the president of this company for ten years, having been elected to that office in 1893. His aid in the establishment of a permanent location for the Queens County Agricultural Society was invaluable. His tastes were largely toward agricultural pursuits, and he enjoyed the summer and the autumn fairs at Mineola with keen relish.

"OYSTER BAY, L. I., May 21.—An important partition sale, according to a recent order of the supreme court, was made by William Rasquin, Jr., yesterday in the town hall at Oyster Bay. The sale was for the benefit of the heirs of the late John Van Cott, who was a son of Cornelius Van Cott. There were ninety-four acres in all, ninety acres of which formed the property, which, with the buildings, was known as the old Van Cott homestead. Much of the property faces on the water, where Oyster Bay harbor and West harbor meet, and located opposite and but a short distance from the Seawanhaka Yacht Club house.

THE WILL.

"In the name of God Amen. the 12th day of June in the year of our Lord Christ one thousand seven hundred and forty five. I Aaron Vannortstrandt of Hempstead in Queens County on the Island of Nassau in the Colony of New York, Turner, being aged and infirm of Body but of perfect mind and memory, thanks be given unto Almighty God therefor, Calling unto mind the mortality of my Body and knowing that it is appointed for all men to die, do make and ordain this my last Will and Testament, that is to say, principally and first of all I give and recommend my soul into the hands of God that gave it and for my Body I recommend it to the earth, to be buried in a Christian like and decent manner at the discretion of my Executors hereafter named, nothing doubting but at the general Resurrection I shall receive the same again by the Almighty power of God, and as touching such worldly Estate wherewith it hath pleased God to bless me with in this life, I give devise and dispose of the same in the following manner and form.

"Item. I order that in the first place all my just debts with funeral charges shall be paid out of my personal Estate by my Executors hereafter named.

"Item. I give and bequeath unto Geertry my dearly beloved wife the sum of twenty pounds of good and Lawfull money to be raised and paid out of my personal Estate after my decease, by my executors hereafter named.

"Item. I do give and hereby order that my aforesaid wife Geertry shall have the whole use and benefit of all and singular of my Housings, Barns, Orchards, Lands, Meadows, Messuages, tenements, appurtenances that I have in any manner of ways belonging unto me, for her my said wife to possess during her widowhood and that my said wife shall not commit any waste nor Imbezel any of my timber nor appurtenances thereupon, but to have the use and Liberty of so much as is necessary to be made use of on my said lands and what I have herein given and bequeathed unto Geertry my aforesaid wife is and shall be in Lieu of her dower and thirds and to bar her of and from having any right to any part or parcell of my estate of both Real and Personal, either by law or any other ways whatsoever.

"Item it is my Will and I do hereby order that provided my aforesaid wife or any other person shall Imbezel or committ any waste of any of my timber or appurtenances in any other ways, then as I have herein above allowed her the use and benefit thereof viz, that then and in that case, I do hereby order and impower my Executors hereafter named with as good Power and Authority to prosecute by law as they shall think best for the preventing of any such Imbezeling or waste whatsoever as aforesaid as I myself could have done against any other person whatsoever in my life time.

"Item. I give and bequeath all the remainder part of all my personal Estate, that I have not herein above ordered given and bequeathed, to be equally divided among my children, and grand children hereafter named, viz, my sons, Jacob, Albert, John, Aaron, Moses, William, Isaac, Evert and David, my daughters, Ann, Alche, Geertry, Mary, Elizabeth and Jannaca, my grand children viz, the children of my daughter Jane Albur-tis deceased, and the children of my daughter Hilleche Hendrickson deceased that is my said gd children to have such part divided unto them as their mother or mothers should have had to have but equal with each of my other children.

"Item. I do hereby order and empower my Executors hereafter named with as good Power and Authority as I myself now have or could have had in my life time, that immediately after the decease of Gerrtry my aforesaid wife or at her marriage or within any reasonable time after, at their discretion as they shall think fit to the best advantage to sell all my Housings, Barns, Orchards, Lands, Outlands, Rights in Common and undivided lands and all my meadows both Salt and Fresh with all tenements Hereditaments, Improvements thereupon or thereunto belonging but provided my said executors do not sell my aforementioned Lands and Tenements immediately after the Marriage or decease of my aforesaid wife, that then the profits and benefits of my said Lands, Meadows and Tenements shall be appropriated and divided by my Executors among my children and grand chil as is above named in the same manner as my personal Estate is to be divided.

"Item. I give and bequeath unto my children and Gdchildren as is above named all the money that all my aforesaid Lands Meadows Tenements and appurtenances as is above mentioned shall be sold for, to be equally divided among them as the money and payments shall become payable and due and to be divided and paid in the same manner as I have herein above ordered my personal Estate to be paid and divided to them.

"Item. It is my Will and I do hereby order that provided my aforesaid wife Gerrtry shall demand her dower at law or refuse after my decease to sign her acquittance for all her dower in law that she hath in and to all my estate or by law might have, that then I do hereby order and it is my Will that she my said wife shall not have no part of any part of my Estate of neither Real or Personal, but that the said sum of twenty pounds as I have herein above given and bequeathed unto her shall be taken divided and paid, by my Executors hereafter named as a part of my Estate to them my aforesaid Children and gd children neither shall my said wife have any Benefit of this my Will in and to my Lands & Tenements nor any other part of my estate in any ways whatsoever.

"Item. Lastly.

"I constitute, make, ordain and appoint my loving son Jacob Van Norstrandt my bro in law Evert fon Gelder and my loving friend John Hegeman of Flushing, Executors of this my last W & T. Revoking &c.

"MR. HENRY A. STOUTENBURGH:

"DEAR SIR,—While looking over the Fishkill Times yesterday, I saw a piece from you in regard to your visit to Fishkill last fall. I happened in the village the same time. Cousin James Dean sent for me to come in the bank. I met you there. He wanted to know what I knew in regard to the Van Nostrand family, which was very little, as I was taken by surprise and at the same time had considerable on my mind, as I am a poor lone widow with a farm. My mind was not on my ancestors. He said you had as far as George, who married Hilche Dorland, that was my great-great-grandfather. He bought and settled on the adjoining farm to mine—then the town of Fishkill, now it is the East Fishkill division—but what year I do not know as the family now owning it have not the old deed. George had two children, Joseph and Helena. Helena married late in life a widower, Abram Du Bois of Glenham. Joseph married Elizabeth Mead and staid on the father's farm. They had six children. George (my grandfather), Phebe Ann (Mr. Dean's mother), Sarah, Helen Maria, James (Mrs. F. R. Benjamin's father), and Catherine. After their father's death the farm was sold to settle the estate. The children remained in the town of Fishkill and East Fishkill except two, Catherine, who married Doctor John Clapp and moved first to Ohio, then different parts of the west; Helen Maria married an Adams and went to Ohio in 1835. 1836, they bought a farm of 86 acres for $600 in Berkshire township. I have the first letter she wrote home—is the reason I am able to give these dates. George (the second as I call him, was my grandfather) married Lavina Gildersleeve (who was of Long Island family). They had two children, both boys; the first died in infancy, the second, Joseph Henry (was my father), born December 1st, 1827, died February 29th, 1884. He married Mary Elizabeth Berry, June 9th, 1858. They had two children, Mary Lavina (that is myself), born May 28th, 1859, and Francis Seymour, born August 9th, 1861. He married Harriet N. Page of Syracuse, November 30th, 1897, and on October 5th, 1898, they had a son which I was allowed to name. It being the only one except my brother of the original Van Nostrand family, I thought it should be named after the first Van Nostrand we knew of, so I called it George and they added the Page to it. My brother lives in Syracuse, 203 Borden Avenue. He is a postal clerk running from Syracuse to New York. This is all I know in regard to the V. N's. Mr. John P. Lounsbury of Wappinger Falls has the V. N. bible, which has the dates, no doubt. I think I told you of its whereabouts. I have the watch that belonged to the first George, it has his initials on the back; also a chair made by him, even the seat is leather, his own tanning, and the tacks were made by him. I believe he was a blacksmith. It is as good as when made; the second George put rockers on it and it has always been in the living room, as it is very comfortable. The first George carried on blacksmithing with his farm, his son Joseph was only a farmer, the second George and Joseph (my grandfather and father) were both wagonmakers and first class. They also had a farm (small one). Father learned my brother the trade, which he worked at some before going in the mail service. A few years ago my brother received a letter from a Van Ostrand in South Haven, Michigan. I think his name was Stephen. He had a drug store in South Haven, and a son Robert in the post-office at that place. He was born near Kingston this State, but moved out there. When in this state they spelled their name the same as we with two n's. He was quite positive we were of the same family. He had his family tree and offered to send it to my brother, but we knew nothing before George, who married Hilche Dorland; I have heard George was of a family of ten children and he came from Long Island to D. C.; so my brother did not send. If you are still collecting, this one at South Haven has his family tree, and perhaps you would know whether we were a branch of that same tree. He wrote my brother it would be no disgrace to be a relative, a distant one at any rate. I am very sorry he has lost the letter. I do not know as any of this will interest you in any way. Should you at any time have a chance I would be pleased to know of my V. N. ancestors before George & Hilche, and should you have it in print please let me know. I was always very proud of my name Van Nostrand, although I gave it up before I was eighteen and my husband only lived three years. He had consumption, was sick about eighteen months. I still live on the farm and own it; the only burying since 1762 was after my husband's death. I bought his brother out and the old Van Nostrand homestead is the adjoining farm. I have told all I know and you will really be tired and need rest. After I saw your piece yesterday I thought perhaps the family at South Haven might be a branch.

"Very truly,

"MARY L. ROGERS,

JACOB JANSEN NOSTRANDT, emigrated to this country in 1638 (O'Callaghan's History of New Netherlands, vol. i., pp. 433, 441) and settled in the colony of Rensselaerwyck, where Jacob Jansz Van Nostrandt, on May 21, 1652, took the oath to the Patroon. The immediate locality was in the south eastern corner of the now Saratoga County, at a place called "Halve Maen," or Half Moon, as his daughter Jannetje on the marriage record stated that she was born there. He was by trade a brewer.

Munsell's History of Albany, Deacons account book, Dutch Church, Albany.—The book opens with an inventory of the investments of the surplus money in the hands of the consistory belonging to the poor.

"Aug. 16, 1651, Jacob Janse Van Norstrant, 72 guilders.

"Nov. 4, 1654. Jacob Jansen Van Norstrant, 300. guilders.

"Apl. 29, 1665. Jakop Jans van Norstran, 40. guilders.

1676, Jacob the Brewer was referred to again. Obtained a patent for land in Albany in 1652, as Jacob Janse Van Nostrandt the brewer; had a patent for a lot on the east corner of Beaver and South Pearl Street, 9 rods by 8½. This plot seems to have been divided into three smaller parcels, Nos. 1, 2, 3. In 1680, he conveyed No. 1 to Hendrick Gerritse Vander Meulen.

On the same block on Beaver Street, and at the other corner adjoining an alley on lots 5 and 6 was his brewery, which he sold in 1654, to Rutger Jacobsen, alias, Rut Van Woert, viz: Jacob Janse Van Noorstran's brewery and lot in Beaver Street, except the Horse Mill and brewers tools (nearly opposite the present Middle Dutch Church). In 1656 he was appointed inspector of beer barrels.

June 7, 1663, occurred the massacre at the Esopus, when Jacob the Brewer appears to have been present. In Aug. and Nov. of that year he was present at two baptisms in Kingston as getuigenis. In 1676 Jacob Jansen signed a petition of the Inhabitants of Esopus for a minister. The Dutch Church was founded in Beverwyck, or now Albany, about 1640, and was the only one north of Esopus having a permanent ministry, until after 1700, save that of Schenectady. Unfortunately the records of the Albany church previous to 1684 are missing, or some particulars of the baptism of his children might have been found. From the records of the Dutch Church of Kingston and New York he appears to have had issue:

Jan Jacobse, m. Agniette —.

Jacob Jacobse, m. Annetje Croesvelt.

Aaron Jacobse, m. Aeltje Van Steenwick; m. Geerty fon Gelder.

Jannetje Jacobse, m. Jacob Hoogteeling.

Maria Jacobse, m. A. V. Bremen.

Agniet Jacobse,

and possibly Pieter Jacobsen, the miller of Esopus. There was a Peter Van Noortstrandt in Hurley, who took the oath in 1687 as being an inhabitant for 29 years, and the record of this Pieter is being compiled by Mr. N. J. Ostrander of New Dorp, N. Y.

Jan. 9, 1811, was collector of taxes in Bn.

July 2, 1812, he kept a boot and shoe store in Old Ferry Street, Bn.

Sep. 8, 1819, he offered 1 cent reward for a colored girl, viz.: "Ran away from the subscriber on the 5th inst a servant girl named Millane, medium size, stout built, very black, about 17 years of age, any person," &c.

Mch. 29, 1820, he advertised a 3-story brick house on Fulton St. for sale.

Nov. 22, 1821, was one of a Concert Committee for St. Ann's Church. The ad. reads that a special boat would leave the ferry after the concert.

In 1822, his house, from another ad., appears to have been at 58 Fulton St., where he offered for sale Sole and Upper Leather.

Nov. 28, 1822, was in the leather business at 43 Ferry St., N. Y.

WILLIAM VAN NOSTRAND, son of William and Catherine de Vou, b. Oct. 1, 1764; bp. Nov. 4, 1764, at Tarrytown (witnesses, Hannes Devoe and Hester his wife); d. May 5, 1849; m., Jan. 9, 1782, Phebe Sherwood, b. Oct. 29, 1766. They moved to Johnstown, Montgomery Co., N. Y., where they settled on a farm, improved it, and planted an orchard. (I can remember eating fruit in it in 1834.—H. V. O.). He was a justice of the peace for many years. Died on the farm. About this time the name was changed from Van Northstrand to Van Nostrand. The Tarrytown record is "Noortstrand." The old homestead farm was about five miles north of Johnstown, Montgomery Co., now Fulton.

(By H. V. O.).—I learned from one of my uncles that William was one of a family of 18 or 19 children, and made spinning-wheels. William the son was drafted to help guard the neutral lines between the two forces. His squad was surprised by the British and taken prisoners, and he was confined in the old City Hall in N. Y. for eleven months, where he contracted the small-pox, and was taken to the pest hospital. He was exchanged and sent home at about the close of the war.

He had a cousin or near relative who lived near him by the name of Aaron, and my uncles often visited him, and always called him uncle Aaron.

(By the compiler).—This Aaron was probably the son of Moses, mentioned elsewhere as Aaron of Connecticut.

SIMON VOORHIES was a witness to a deed executed May 8, 1775, by David Beadle to Wm. Cornell, at Hungry Harbor Neck.

It is a well known fact that the American people are not properly educated in the principles of medicine and surgery. The average person is not able to distinguish between a good doctor and a bad one. This is due to the fact that the medical profession has not been able to keep pace with the progress of science. The result is that the patient is often misled and the doctor is often disgraced.

The American Medical Association has been organized for the purpose of promoting the interests of the medical profession and the welfare of the patient. It has been successful in many of its efforts, but it has not been able to do so in all respects. This is due to the fact that the medical profession is not a united body. There are many different schools of thought and many different interests. The result is that the American Medical Association is often divided and its efforts are often wasted.

During the Revolutionary war John Vernon, a young Englishman, came to this country and settled in Philadelphia. When Philadelphia was in possession of the British forces Vernon was "pressed" into the service of the English army, and being a capable teamster he was sent to Hempstead, L. I., from whence it was his duty to convey provisions to the English ships which lay at anchor near Lloyd's Neck, L. I. One dark night Vernon deserted and found a home with a Quaker family named Jackson, of Syosset, L. I. After the war John Vernon married Letitia Pool, of Brooklyn, and began farming, and subsequently purchased the farm in East Norwich where he lived the remainder of his life.

"LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

OF

ANNEKE JANS,

(Widow of Roeloffe Jans, and lastly widow of the Rev. Everardus Bogardus.)

"In the name of the Lord, Amen: KNOW all men by these presents, that this day, the 29th of January, 1663, in the afternoon, about 4 o'clock, appeared before me, Derick Schelluyne, Notary Public, in the presence of the witness hereafter mentioned, Anneke Jans, widow of Roeloffe Jans, of Masterland, and now lastly widow of the Rev. Everardus Bogardus, residing in the village of Bowerych, and well known to us Notary, and witnesses; the said Anneke Jans laying on her bed in a state of sickness, but perfectly sensible, and in full possession of her mental powers, and capable to testate; to which state of mind we can fully testify: the said Anneke Jans, considering the shortness of life, the certainty of death, and the uncertainty of the hour of time, she, the said Anneke Jans declared, after due consideration, without any persuasion, compulsion, or retraction, this present document to be her last will and testament, in manner following: First of all; recommending her immortal soul to the Almighty God, her Creator and Redeemer, and consigning her body to Christian burial, and herewith revoking and annulling all prior testimony, dispositions of any kind whatever. And now proceeding anew, she declared to nominate, and institute as her sole and universal heirs, her children;—viz. Sarah Roelofsen, wife of Hans Kierstead; Catrina Roelofsen, wife of Johannis Van Brough; also Jannelye, and Rachel Haitgers, the children of her deceased daughter, Fytge Roelofsen, during her life-time the wife of Peter Haitgers, representing together their mother's place; also her son Jan Roelofsen; and finally, William Cornelius, Jonas, and Peitre Bogardus; and to them to bequeath all her real estate, chattels, credits, monies, gold, silver coined and uncoined, jewels, cloths, linen, woollen, household furniture, and all property whatsoever, without reserve, or restriction of any kind, to be disposed of after her decease, and divided by them in equal shares, to do with the same at their own will and pleasure, without any hindrance whatsoever: Provided, nevertheless, with this express condition and restriction, that her four first-born children shall divide between them out of their property, the sum of 1000 guilders, to be paid to them out of the proceeds of a certain farm situated on Manhattan Island, bounded on the North River; and that before any other dividend takes place: and as three of these children at the time of their marriage received certain donations, and as Jan Roelofsen is yet unmarried, he is to receive a bed, and a milch cow; and to Jonas and Peitre Bogardus, she gives a house and lot, situated to the westward of the house of her the Testatrix, in the village of Beverwick, going in length until the end of a bleaching spot; and in breadth, up to the room of her the Testatrix's house: besides a bed to each of them, and a milch cow to each of them. the above to be an equivalent of what the married children have received. Finally, she the Testatrix gives to Roeloffe Kierstead, the child of her daughter Sarah, a silver mug; to Annatre Van Brough (the child of her daughter Catrina) also a silver mug; and to Jannelye and Michael Haitgers (the children of her daughter Fytge) also a silver mug: all the above donations to be provided for out of the first monies received, and afterwards the remainder of the property to be divided and shared as aforesaid. The Testator declares this document to be her only true last will and testament, and desiring that after her decease it may supersede all other testaments, codicils, donations, or any other instrument whatsoever; and in case any formalities may have been omitted, it is her will and desire that the same benefit may accrue as if they actually had been observed; and she requested me, Notary Public, to make one, or more lawful instruments, in the usual form of this, her Testatrix's last will and desire.

"Signed, sealed and delivered, at the house of the testatrix, in the village of Beverwick, in New Netherlands, in the presence of Ruth Jacobse Van Schoondervert and Evert Wendell, witnesses.

"THE CONFIRMATION OF THE BOWERY TRACT.

"A Confirmation of a parcel of land on Manhattan Island to the children of Anneke Bogardus: Richard Nicholls, esq.

"WHEREAS, there is a certain parcel of land, lying on this island, Manhattan, towards the North River, which, in the year 1636, was the land and Bowery of Anna Bogardus; to whom, and husband, Roeloffe Jansen, it was first granted by the then Dutch Governor, Walter Van Twiller; at which time the said Roeloffe Jansen first began to manure the lands, and build thereupon: that limits whereof did then begin from the fence of the house, by the strand side, so running north-east to the fence of Old Jan's land; its length two hundred and ten rods: then going along the fence of the said old Jan's land, south-east, it reacheth to a certain swamp, and is in breadth one hundred rods; and stretching along the swamp, southwest, it is in length one hundred and sixty rods; and from the swamp to the strand, going west, its in breadth fifty rods; the land going on the south side of the house to the fence of the land belonging to the Company: and so to the east side; begins at the fence and goes south to the posts and rails of the Company's land without any hindrance: on the north its breadth is sixty rods; in length, on the south side, along the posts and rails, one hundred and sixty rods: on the east side, to the entrance of the Chalk Hooke, in breadth thirty rods; and along the said Chalk Hooke, on the north side to the fence of the land before mentioned, going west, its length is one hundred rods; amounting in all to about sixty-two acres; for which said parcel of land, Anneke Jans, the widow, and relict of Domine Everardus Bogardus, had heretofore a patent, or ground brief, from the late Dutch Governor, Petrus Stuyvesant, bearing date the fourth day of July, 1654.

"Now, for the confirmation unto the children, and heirs, of the said Anneke Bogardus, deceased, in their possession, and enjoyment of the premises: KNOW YE, that by virtue of the commission and authority unto me given by his Royal Highness, I have ratified, confirmed, and granted, and by these presents do ratify, confirm, and grant, unto the children and heirs of Anneke Bogardus, deceased, the aforesaid recited parcel of land, and premises, with all and singular the appurtenances to have and to hold the said parcel of land and premises unto the children and heirs of the said Anneke Bogardus, their heirs and assigns, unto the proper use and behoof of the said children, and heirs, their heirs and assigns for ever, rendering and paying, &c.

This farm called the Domine's Bowery contained 62 acres (adjoined the old West India Co.'s farm), was granted originally to Roeloff Jansen in 1636, by Gov. Van Twiller, and was confirmed to the widow July 4, 1654, by Gov. Stuyvesant, and again confirmed to the children and heirs Mch. 27, 1667, by Gov. Nicholls.

Mch. 9, 1671, William Bogardus for himself and brothers, Jan and Jonas, and two of Anneke Jans's sons-in-law (acting in right of their wives and by assignment of Peter Bogardus)

The first of these was the fact that the United States had no standing army at the time of the Revolution. This was a serious disadvantage, as it meant that the country had to rely on a militia of volunteers. The militia was made up of men who were trained in the use of arms, but who were not paid for their service. This meant that the militia was not as well equipped or as well trained as a standing army. However, the militia was able to fight the Revolutionary War successfully, and this was due to a number of factors. One of the main factors was the leadership of George Washington. He was a brilliant strategist and a skilled commander. He was able to lead the militia to victory in a number of key battles, including the Battle of the Clouds, the Battle of the Clouds, and the Battle of the Clouds. Another factor was the fact that the militia was motivated by a sense of patriotism and a desire to fight for their country. This was a powerful force, and it helped the militia to overcome many of its disadvantages.

conveyed this Bowery to Col. Lovelace, then Governor; but with his disgrace in 1673, this land was confiscated to the Duke of York, and in 1685 became vested in the Crown, after which it formed part of what was successively called the Duke's farm, the King's farm, and the Queen's farm.

In 1705, this last was conveyed by Letters Patent, under the great seal of the Province, to the Corporation of Trinity Church.

Jan. 28, 1658, Nicholas was made a Great Burgher.

Feb. 14, 1665, he was at Bergen.

July 3, 1666, was magistrate of the Town of Bergen.

Francis de Bruyn, or rather Browne, was from Yorkshire, Eng., and served as a soldier in Curaçao in 1643, whence he came about the following year to New Amsterdam, where he married Catharine, dau. of Caspar Varleth, in 1657, and owned a house and lot between Pearl and Bridge Sts., west of Broad St. (O'C.) A house and lot was sold in N. A. by execution belonging to him.

"Francois De Bruynne, b. 1629, emigrated from Amsterdam about 1647, and at first settled in N. A., where he was a member of the Dutch Church prior to 1660. He married (1st), Aug. 17, 1657, in N. A., Catharine, dau. of Caspar Varleth. Married (2^d) Anna De Sille. See Bergen's Early Settlers, page 86, and 154, 155; also this publication, name Jan Hansen.

"Jan. 26, 1654. Cornelis van Tienhoven in quality as Schout of this City of New Amsterdam, appeared in Court and made an ex officio complaint of the illegal proceedings of the Court of Gravesend in setting up and affixing the bans of matrimony betwixt Johan Van Beeck and Maria Verleth, both of whom have their domicile in and about this City of New Amsterdam, and are not published, in accordance with correct practice of the ecclesiastical and civil order in this City, so that the afore-said proceedings greatly tend to the infringement on the good policy of our Fatherland and the privilege and jurisdiction of this City, and prepare a way, whereby hereafter some sons and daughters, unwilling to obey their parents and guardians, will, contrary to their wishes, secretly go and get married in such villages or elsewhere; he requests, that the Court give heed hereunto, and take such action as their Worships shall judge proper, to maintain jurisdiction and prevent unlawful marriages.

"The Court referred the matter to the Honble Director General and Supreme Council of New Netherlands."

Letter to the Court at Gravesend:

"KIND FRIENDS:

"Whereas on this date the 10th of Feb 1654. by petition presented to our Court by Johannes van Beeck, he requests, that his bans with Maria Verleth may be entered and be properly proclaimed here, and we have understood, that the same Johannes van Beeck and Maria Verleth had previously to this made proclamation of their bans through your Court at Gravesend, which (under correction) is contrary to the style and laws of our Fatherland, it is our request to your Honorable Court, in case such a circumstance should hereafter occur, that we may be informed thereof in order to prevent on one side and the other all improprieties, which we on our part engage to do in like manner, especially as it is usual, according to the custom of our Fatherland, that every one shall have three publications at the place, where his domicile is, and then he may go and be married wherever he pleases: wherein we are and remain

“ARENT VAN HATTEN.

“By order of the Burgomasters and Schepens of the City of N. Amsterdam.

“JACOB KIP,
“Secretary.”

“Feb. 16, 1654. Caspar Verleth and Johannes Van Beeck appeared in Court, and prayed most earnestly, that disposal may be made of the petition and remonstrance concerning the marriage between Joh van Beeck and Maria Verleth, presented to the Burgomaster and Schepens. As the Bench is not complete, it is postponed until Thursday next, so as in the meantime to notify the other gentlemen.”

“Feb. 19, 1654. Johannes Van Beeck appeared in Court and requested as before, that action may be had on his petition, offering furthermore in time and on occasion, if necessary, to affirm at all times under oath what he has stated in his petition respecting the private conversation with the Honorable Petrus Stuyvesant. Burgomaster and Schepens of this City having seen and examined the petition presented to our Court on the 10th and 16th of Feb, regarding the bans of matrimony between Johannes Van Beeck and Maria Verleth, therefore it being noted

“First. Who in the beginning instituted marriage; also, what the Apostle of the Gentiles teaches therein.

“Secondly. The proper and attained ages of Johannes van Beeck and Marya Verleth.

“Thirdly. The consent of the father and mother on the daughter's side.

“Fourthly. The distance and remoteness of places between this and our Fatherland, together with the difficulty between Holland and England.

“Fifthly. The danger that in such circumstances, matters by long delay might come to be disclosed between these afore-said young people, which would bring disgrace on both families, as well on one side as on the other.

"T is true that our Theologians say, and that correctly, that we must not tolerate or permit lesser sins, in order thereby to avoid greater ones.

"Therefore we think (with due submission) that by a proper solemnization of marriage (for the Apostle to the Hebrews calls the marriage bed honorable) the lesser and greater sins are prevented.

"Therefore the Burgomasters and Schepens of this City are of opinion, that the proper ecclesiastical proclamations of the aforesaid young people ought to be made at the earliest opportunity to be followed afterwards by their marriage.

"Done at the session aforesaid in the City Hall, New Amsterdam, in New Netherlands this 19. Feb 1654."

Signed by seven members of the Court.
